

OFFICER RETIRES—Jack Mills, former city policeman, was forced to retire because of a disability. Although he has not worked since June 15, his retirement did not become official until the last week of September.

Mills Retires From Department

The disability retirement of Circleville Policeman Jack Mills became effective officially the last week in September.

Shortly after Mills underwent surgery two years ago for a deteriorating disc in his spine, the retired police officer was at a riot control training session at the Pickaway County Infirmary Farm when a car exploded as he approached it.

The blast apparently injured the still healing spinal column. Surgeons have told Mills he may have to face further surgery to relieve the constant pain he now suffers.

Mills was a veteran of 14 years on the police department. Following his discharge from the Army, the 39-year-old native of Williamsport joined the force two years as a special officer.

He then worked on construction projects as a carpenter for the next six years. In 1961 he rejoined the force as a special officer and in 1967 received a regular civil service appointment.

During his time on the department he attended six juvenile schools, the Hamilton County Homicide School, Identi-Kit School, civil disturbance school and the 120 hour Ohio Peace Officers Training School. He also had 40 hours in Police Instruction School and assisted Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff Earl Kuhn instruct the most recent police officers training school.

Mills served in the United States Army for three years including two years in Korea. He received the Purple Heart and the good conduct medal while in the service.

The retired officer most recently served the department as juvenile investigator.

"That's what I'll miss most, working with the kids," Mills stated. "If every town had kids like ours there wouldn't be any big problems."

Frequently sought by teenage groups sponsoring dances at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds as the law enforcement officer to maintain discipline, he became affectionately known as "Rent-A-Fuzz" to the youngsters.

One of his regular duties during Pumpkin Show was to walk at the head of the parades with other officers clearing the route through city streets.

Probably the one tragedy that sticks most in his mind is the explosion and fire that destroyed Bingman Drug Store and claimed the lives of five people. Mills was enroute to the store when the explosion occurred. He walked into the holocaust, assisting six people from the building.

Mills worked eight weeks in cracking an armed robbery of Short-stop Market, traveling to Columbus, Athens, Zanesville before finally identifying the person involved. He was Michael Warner, now in the Ohio State Penitentiary serving a sentence on armed robbery from Athens.

Another big case he remembers is that of con artist "Dr. Brown" (Lawrence Brown). The con artist came to Circleville posing as a dentist and wrote checks for hundreds of dollars during a 2-day stay here. Using other aliases the con man also played his game in Marietta, Lancaster, Logan and Jackson.

When finally arrested by Circleville Police, he claimed the reason he was bilking the merchants was to prove to them they needed a "protection service" he would offer. "Dr. Brown" never sold any of the merchandise he purchased with the rubber checks and it was all recovered by city police and returned to the rightful owners. He claimed he was seldom questioned if the check was the amount of purchase only. Sgt. Wes Barton and Sgt. Larry Pontious and Mills worked together on the case.

"There were a lot of good times and I enjoyed it. I would go back to the department if I could," he said.

Married to the former Alyce Weller, they are the parents of four children, Mark, 18; Mike, 17; Marcia, 16; Melissa 7.

Mid East War Widens

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — The Iraqi military command announced today that its air and ground forces had joined the war against Israel and "were taking an active part" in the fighting on both fronts.

The Beirut newspaper An Nahar said 18,000 Iraqi troops with 100 tanks had arrived in Syria.

Five other Arab countries are reported to have sent token forces to the war.

Unconfirmed press reports said a Moroccan brigade sent to Syria five months ago was taking part in the attack on Kunitra, in the Golan Heights.

A small contingent of troops from Kuwait based on the Egyptian side of the Suez Canal since 1967 is taking part in the Sinai assault, the Kuwait government acknowledged.

Tunisia reportedly has sent 900 soldiers to Egypt. Algeria said it had sent some jet fighters that are in action on the Suez front, and reinforcements are on the way. And Sudan has said it was sending troops to help the Egyptians but didn't say how many.

An Nahar said it learned that Moscow had instructed its ambassadors in the Arab capitals to relay a message from Communist party chief Leonid Brezhnev telling the Arab governments "do not leave Egypt and Syria alone in the battle with Israel. Help them with all the means you have. We are giving them all types of assistance."

The paper said diplomatic sources told it the Soviet government was supplying arms and ammunition "to ensure the entire war needs" of the Arab side. The paper also said Soviet experts were participating with Egyptian and Syrian forces "in defending the two countries."

Israeli warplanes attacked Egyptian air bases 27 miles north of Cairo today and hit at Egyptian and Syrian forces on the two battlefronts in the fourth Arab-Israeli war, the Israeli command reported. But there was no report of a resumption of the ground fighting as the war went into its fifth day.

The Israelis said their pilots reported "accurate hits" in raids on air bases at Khusna and Abu Hamad, west of Ismailia in the Nile Delta, and on a radar station on the Mediterranean coast 60 miles east of Alexandria.

Israeli spokesman said Israeli planes also flew missions in support of the ground forces facing the Syrians on the Golan Heights and the Egyptians on the east bank of the Suez Canal.

Syria claimed its air force brought down one Israeli Mirage jet in a dogfight over the Heights, and its anti-aircraft gunners blew up an Israeli Skyhawk.

But Israel said Tuesday night was "generally quiet" on both fronts.

Egypt and Syria said Tuesday that they had beaten back repeated Israeli attacks and were poised for new advances. An Israeli spokesman admitted Tuesday night that Israel's counteroffensive had stalled in both the Sinai Desert and the Golan Heights.

Cities in Israel, Egypt and Syria were blacked out after an Israeli raid

Tuesday on Damascus and another Syrian city, but no air attacks on any cities Tuesday night were reported. Tel Aviv had a four-minute air alert at 4:30 a.m., but apparently it was a false alarm.

Egyptian officials at the United Nations claimed the Israeli air force also bombed Cairo Tuesday, but the Israelis denied this. There was no confirmation from the Egyptian capital.

U.S. military analysts told newsmen in Washington they believe the Israelis can drive the Egyptian and Syrian forces back behind the cease-fire lines they crossed last Saturday but only at "a very considerable cost." One official said the Arabs "are doing better this time than they have in the past."

The Pentagon said the amphibious assault ship Guadalcanal, with 2,000 Marines and 30 helicopters on board, was cruising in the eastern Mediterranean along with the aircraft carrier Independence and escort ships. The Guadalcanal could be used to rescue Americans endangered by the fighting.

U.N. Gives Up On Peace Search

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Security Council adjourned its debate on the Arab-Israeli war indefinitely Tuesday night because there was no prospect of agreement on a cease-fire resolution.

The Soviet Union boycotted the session for half an hour while Israel was blaming Moscow and the Arabs for the fighting.

Diplomats predicted the council would take up no cease-fire resolution until it became clear which side was likely to win the war.

One European diplomat predicted that if Israel appears to be gaining on the battlefield and threatening new Arab territory, nonaligned nations will sponsor a resolution calling for a "cease-fire and nothing more."

He added that if the Arabs seem to be advancing successfully on Israel, "there would be growing pressure on the United States to save Israel and that would be a dangerous situation."

At the Tuesday night council meeting, Soviet Ambassador Jacob A. Malik broke in on the Israeli speech to say he would not hear "excuses from the representative of murderers and international gangsters."

Hundreds of diplomats and U.N. workers applauded enthusiastically as Malik left the chamber.

No other country spoke on behalf of Israel.

Egypt said during the meeting that there had been an air raid on Cairo and that the Egyptians captured four pilots "who attacked women and children and men in the streets." Israel later denied making such an attack, and foreign newsmen in the Egyptian capital reported two air raid alarms but no evidence of any planes over the main part of the city.

The United States made a brief expression of condolences to all nations whose citizens were "innocent victims" of the warfare but did not mention its earlier proposal for a return to the battle lines that Egypt and Syria crossed on Saturday when the fighting began.

China was silent.

Egyptian Foreign Minister Mohammed H. El-Zayyat told the council the United States was reported sending 30 more Phantom Jets to Israel.

Soviet Attitude Worries Nixon

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration is uneasy about a lack of Soviet restraint in the new Middle East war, but U.S. officials are not yet willing to publicly charge Moscow with irresponsibility.

The concern over Soviet attitudes is limited at this time to what the Russians are saying. The officials say there is no indication now that Moscow intends to get involved directly or will supply large new shipments of arms to the Arabs.

The officials are cautious in their judgment of the Soviet role for two reasons: they don't want to go on the record with a firm assessment that might quickly be proved wrong, and they don't want to get into a shouting match with Moscow.

So far, the officials acknowledge, this has been a relatively one-sided situation. The Soviets have charged Israel with aggression, and their United Nations ambassador, Jacob Malik, said Tuesday night that Israeli leaders are "international criminals."

In addition, Soviet officials in Moscow and Russian ambassadors are calling in Arab diplomats to advise them to give direct support to Egypt and Syria and to assure them of the Kremlin's full backing.

On the other hand, the United States has yet to issue a public statement in support of Israel. And, while the State

The jets, he said, "are the same as the ones that raided Cairo today." He added that U.S. citizens were reported volunteering to join the Israeli air force.

Syria's representative, Mohamed Zakaria Ismael, relayed reports of deaths and injuries to U.N. personnel and others in the Israeli bombing of Damascus on Tuesday.

Ismael said the bombs fell on the Soviet cultural center in Damascus and a residential district.

Malik called the bombing "a barbaric, gangster act" and said he had press reports that the embassies of 10 nations were destroyed and 30 Soviet citizens were killed.

GOP Faces Uphill Struggle In 1974 Senatorial Races

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican campaign strategists say they face an uphill battle to head off Senate losses in 1974 after Ohio Sen. William B. Saxbe announced his retirement and sources reported Kentucky Sen. Marlow W. Cook also will step down.

Democrats, meanwhile, said they have a good chance to capture both seats in 1974, as well as the Utah seat being surrendered by 74-year-old Republican Sen. Wallace F. Bennett.

They see a chance to hold their present 57-43 advantage and perhaps increase it in 1974.

Saxbe, who made his decision known Tuesday, was the fifth senator to announce he won't run again in 1974. In addition to Bennett, the others are Republican Norris Cotton of New Hampshire, and Democrats Harold E. Hughes of Iowa and Alan Bible of Nevada.

Republicans suffered another blow last week when Iowa Gov. Robert Ray, rated their strongest likely candidate for the Hughes seat, announced he would not run for the Senate.

Interviews with both Republican and Democratic campaign officials produced general agreement on the current outlook. Of the 34 seats being contested in 1974, the Democrats now hold 19.

Besides Utah, Kentucky and Ohio, the GOP-held seats in which Democrats think they have the best chance in 1974 are those of Sen. Milton R. Young in North Dakota and Robert Dole in Kansas.

Golan Heights Devastation Marks Furious 3-Day Battle

WITH ISRAELI TROOPS IN OCCUPIED SYRIA (AP) — Charred Syrian tanks were strewn over the field as Israeli armor rumbled by. Israeli soldiers looked tired and grim coming back from battle.

This was the scene Tuesday near the front line in the occupied Golan Heights, where Syrian and Israeli tanks, artillery and aircraft have fought furiously for three days over a few miles of rocky soil.

The area, about two miles from the 1967 cease-fire line in the southern sector of the Golan, was reached by this newsman—apparently one of the first outsiders to arrive deep in the battle zone.

A dozen Russian-made Syrian tanks were scattered over one field only three miles from the scene of further tank duels. No disabled Israeli tanks were visible.

Asked where the damaged Israeli tanks were, a military policeman replied: "There's one on the other side of the field—that's it."

Israel says it has pushed back invading Syrian forces to the cease-fire line, except in a few areas where the Syrians maintain a weakening grasp on a few hundred yards. The evidence seemed to support the claim.

The Israelis admit Syrian tanks penetrated five miles into Israeli-held land in the first surprise assault. Syria claims to have recaptured the mountain plateau, which it lost in the 1967 fighting.

The Syrian tanks were fireblackened and mutilated.

Where were the Syrian tank crews? A corporal said: "They have been taken care of."

Artillery gunners in the rear told of advancing two or three miles in the last day to provide support fire for armor on the front.

"We follow the line," one gunner said, "whenever it moves, we move. Just the fact that I am here instead of two miles back where I was yesterday is a sign that we are advancing in the line," said the gunner, a physicist in civilian life.

Soldiers in the forward position looked tired and grim. "They are having a rough time of it over there," one trooper said, indicating the direction of the current battle.

The soldiers admitted the Syrians were putting up a stiff fight. Several who fought in the Golan during the 1967 war said this one was much tougher.

"They are not running this time," one man said.

Airplane Crash Kills 8 Persons

INKSTER, Mich. (AP) — Eight persons aboard a twin-engine plane died Tuesday evening when the craft crashed into a densely populated residential area, authorities said.

Officials said the airplane skidded about 550 feet down a street lined by homes and slammed into a utility pole but there were no reports of injuries to anyone on the ground.

Inkster police said two men, two women, three young girls and a boy were killed in the crash.

The Beechcraft airplane crashed about 7:30 p.m. while attempting to land at nearby Detroit Metropolitan Airport in foggy weather, said the Federal Aviation Administration.

The agency said the registration of the craft had not been confirmed and that the bodies of the eight aboard had not been identified.

In today's public session the committee was to hear Michael W. McMinoway, identified as a $1,000-a-month GOP spy whose reports from inside the campaign of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., were given the code name "Sedan Chair 2."

Tuesday, the committee heard from John Buckley, a former FBI agent, who said Nixon political operatives code-named him "Fat Jack" when he worked as a lunch-hour spy photographing internal documents in the campaign of Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine.

Committee sources said Rebozo told staff investigators he received the $100,000 sometime in 1970 from Richard Danner, manager of a Hughes-owned Las Vegas hotel. Rebozo said he returned the money last spring, to Chester Davis, a Hughes lawyer, the sources said. They said Davis would be questioned privately later today.

Several other Hughes associates have been questioned, the sources said. Among them is Robert A. Maheu, a former Hughes executive, who has testified in a California lawsuit that Nixon asked Rebozo to receive the money, which Maheu said was intended as a campaign contribution.

Rebozo's bank records have been subpoenaed by the committee.

American officials say the administration is willing to accept this situation for several reasons. For one, any hope that Washington can be accepted by both sides in arranging an ultimate Mideast settlement could be destroyed by strong charges against the Arabs.

There is also concern about the already critical oil situation, and the United States is worried that the Middle East crisis could hurt relations with the Russians.

The Arab-Israeli war and its relation to American foreign policy has been the subject of constant meetings by Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger, President Nixon and other government officials, including a session today at the White House with congressional leaders. At a White House dinner Tuesday, Kissinger said he may postpone an Oct. 13 trip to London because of the war.

The meeting with the Capitol Hill figures came after Sens. Henry A. Jackson of Washington and Harrison A. Williams Jr. of New Jersey, both Democrats, called for new shipments of American military equipment to Israel.

They also said the Mideast crisis was helping to depress prices.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at noon was down 2.49 at 971.70. Declining Big Board issues had a more than 2-to-1 lead over gainers.

IBM was untraded awaiting news dissemination of its third-quarter profits—$2.81 a share, compared with $2.21 for the same period a year ago. Indications were it would open in the $280 to $290 range. It closed Monday at 261¾, up 2¼.

Telex opened down 1 at 5½ on the Big Board. IBM and Telex were untraded Tuesday. The U.S. District Court judge who ordered IBM to pay Telex $352.5 million in antitrust penalties announced he had made substantial errors in his computation of the award and ordered consideration of the penalties.

On the American Stock Exchange, McCulloch Oil was the volume leader, up ½ at 5½. The Amex market-value index was down .25 at 107.62.

The Big Board's broad-based index of some 1,500 common stocks was down .19 at 59.35.

2 The Circleville Herald, Wednesday October 10, 1973 Storms, Snow Hammer Western Areas Of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A series of thunderstorms stretched over the nation's midsection with winter-like conditions to the west and summer to the east.

The thunderstorms from Kansas to Minnesota churned up high winds, hail, heavy rains and tornados. Temperatures were in the 60s and 70s eastward.

Rainfall reached almost three inches at Sioux Falls, S.D., before dawn, bringing the total to almost five inches, including Tuesday's downpour. Hailstones larger than grapes fell on Sioux Falls on Tuesday.

Snow and temperatures dipping into the 20s hit the central Rockies behind the storm front. Almost four inches of snow whitened Wyoming. Northern Colorado expected heavy snow today, and Denver had a light snowfall.

A tornado was sighted near Red Cloud, Neb., and Blooming Prairie, Minn., Tuesday. No injuries were reported. High winds at St. Cloud in central Minnesota caused some property damage.

Fog crept over Michigan, parts of the Ohio Valley and the Appalachians Tuesday and today. Some traffic accidents occurred in the fog, including one in Ohio involving eight cars. Some schools closed in Ohio Tuesday because of dangerous highway conditions due to fog.

Lightning struck at West Palm Beach, Fla., and Welcome, Minn., Tuesday. At West Palm Beach, lightning injured four boys, two seriously, and at Welcome, one man was knocked unconscious but was recovering.

Elsewhere, skies were generally cloudy to fair with a few thunderstorms scattered along the western Gulf Coast and in Florida.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 23 at Kalispell, Mont., to 81 at Corpus Christi, Tex.

Board Of Review Refers Developers To Health Office

The Pickaway County Subdivision Review Board met Tuesday in the rear office of the Pickaway County Engineer's quarters in the court house.

Two proposed plats in Scioto Twp. for subdivisions of five or more lots were reviewed and the subdividers were referred to the Pickaway County Health Department for information on soils and sewage disposal systems.

Deaths

MR. THEODORE F. GOELLER

A memorial service for Mr. Theodore Frederick Goeller, 65, Wichita, Kan., who died 1:30 a.m. Sunday at St. Francis Hospital in Wichita, was held 2 p.m. Tuesday in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Wichita.

Born Sept. 25, 1908 in Circleville, he was the son of John C. and Mary Ebert Goeller.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Reba Britton Goeller; two daughters, Mrs. Nancy Gugler and Mrs. Jerry (Betty) Wilson; two sons, T. F. Goeller Jr. and Robert John Goeller; one brother, R. E. (Pete) Goeller; two sisters, Mrs. Louisa Leist and Mrs. Catherine Mallory; one half-brother, William B. Goeller; one half-sister, Mrs. F. W. (Martha) Anderson, Knollwood Village, Circleville; nine grandchildren and several cousins.

He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Wichita and the family suggests contributions be made to the church or the Cancer Society.

MR. PAUL T. WALTERS

Mr. Paul Thomas Walters, 45, 132 W. Union St., died 8 a.m. Wednesday at his residence.

Born June 21, 1928 in Cleveland, he was the son of Leslie and Mary Randall Walters. His mother survives.

He was a carpenter at CVI in Hilliard, a member of the Church of the Brethren and a veteran of the Korean War.

He is survived by his widow, Phyllis Cupp Walters; two daughters, Arlene and Paula of the home; one son, Thomas of the home; a sister, Mrs. Duane Saunders, Grove City; and a brother, Leo Walters, Columbus.

Services will be 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Church of the Brethren with The Rev. Marion Nansel officiating.

Friends may call at the Mader Funeral Home beginning 3 p.m. Thursday and after 9:30 a.m. Saturday at the church.

Sentence Man In Burglary

Rodney Frey, Lockbourne, was one of the three persons appearing this morning in common pleas court. Frey had pleaded guilty to breaking and entering an uninhabited building in the night season and grand larceny as a result of the burglary of an Ashville laundromat.

He was sentenced to 1-15 years in the Ohio State Reformatory for Men at Mansfield on the breaking and entering charge and 1-7 years on grand larceny. Judge William Ammer order the sentences to run concurrently.

Entering a plea of not guilty to breaking and entering an inhabited dwelling in the day season was Mack Showalter.

Also entering not guilty pleas this morning was Richard LaFollette. LaFollette is charged with three counts of issuing checks with insufficient funds. He entered not guilty pleas to all three charges.

Employment Of Handicap Vets Urged

The Circleville office of the Ohio Bureau of Employment is participating in "Hire the Handicap Veteran Week," it was announced today by Joe Zaug, office manager.

Zaug urged any employers who have positions that may be filled by handicap veterans to call him. Office hours are Monday, Wednesday and Friday, noon to 4 p.m. at Memorial Hall.

Two veterans have been placed in jobs just recently by the Circleville office and a total of seven were placed in September.

Architect Told Reduce Sewage Plant Cost

Hazen and Swayer, Inc. designer of the proposed sewage treatment plant for Circleville, was told to revise plans to bring the cost of construction down to $4.5 million.

The Circleville Board of Public Utilities met Tuesday with Frank Coughlan, an engineer for the architects, and with three council members and Mayor Frank Barnhill.

The council members attending the session were Robert Kenworthy, Harold Hoffman and president Joseph Bell. Members of the board of utilities are George Fissell, John Bowers, and David Yates. Also present were public utilities manger Charles Taylor and his assistant, Don Wolfe.

There was unanimous agreement among city officials the residents of the city could not afford increased sewer rates for a $6 million facility. That was the low bid when two contractors submitted bids in September, both of which were rejected.

Coughlan agreed with city officials that timing of the bid was poor. It was his opinion that if rebid, the cost will be lower. He agreed to include a number of alternates in the new specifications and to seek bids separately for electrical work and heating and ventilating in hopes of lowering the overall cost.

Grange News

Saltcreek Valley grange met Tuesday at the Saltcreek school with 22 members and five guests present.

The business meeting was conducted by Hoyt Timmons with reports of grange activities given by Donna Beougher, Barbara McKenzie and Paul Dunkle.

A thank you note was read from Mary DeLong thanking the grange for the gift received while she was in the hospital.

New committees appointed were: Women's Activities, Mrs. Hoyt Timmons, Mrs. Doris Edwards, Mrs. H. O. Clark, Mrs. Jeanette Armstrong, Miss Leora Sayre, and Mrs. Donna Beougher;

Flower Committee, Mrs. Neal Wolfe and Mrs. Fred DeLong; news reporter, Mrs. Eloise Dunkle.

The grange went to Washington Grange, Oct. 9 for the installation of officers.

The next meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Nov. 6.

Paul Dunkle, lecturer, presented a program entitled "It's Your Job" with a reading "Enjoying Your Job" given by Barbara McKenzie.

Roll call was answered by naming a job which one had sometime in his life and what part of it was liked the most and a contest on mental games and a grange quiz were conducted by the lecturer.

Paul Dunkle gave a recital on "Duties of Mothers" with refreshments served by Corilla Pontius, Eloise Dunkle, Doris Edwards and Leora Sayre.

LE Board Limits Gym Use; Promotes Levy

The Logan Elm School Board met in regular session last night after a carry-in dinner sponsored by the Logan Elm Classroom Teachers Association. The LECTA had invited the board members and candidates, running for school board positions to the carry-in meal.

Employment of four non-certified personnel and one home tutor was approved. Jean Smith was employed as a teacher aide to replace Kay Driesbach who had resigned earlier. Karen Hunter was hired as a part-time custodian to replace Berkley Faulkner. Substitute custodian and substitute bus driver positions were approved for Michael Cruse and Mary Jayjohn respectively. Frances McClland was appointed as home tutor for a handicapped child in the district.

A Citizens Committee has been formed to promote passage of the five mill operating levy which will be in the November ballot. The committee will meet at the George McDowell Exchange School Oct. 15 at 7:30 p.m. to discuss the issue. Anyone interested in helping is urged to attend.

The board adopted a new policy concerning the use of the gymnasium by groups other than students. It was decided that no group outside of the Logan Elm School District will be granted permission to use the gymnasium.

A request by Dow West, high school principal, was made designating May 26 as the date for baccalaureate and commencement exercises. Tentative approval to combine the services was given by the board pending results of a survey of the opinions of the senior class.

John Henn, Superintendent, read a report concerning recent inspection of the vocational agriculture facilities.

Inspector Paul Pulse from the state department conducted an on-the-site inspection and decided the vocational agriculture department would have to meet with state criteria or lose their state funding. If more and better facilities are not provided the department will lose state funding amounting to $14,000 to $15,000.

PTO Will Meet

Washington Twp. Parent-Teacher Organization has scheduled an open house from 7:30 to 8 p.m. Thursday at the school.

Present for the 8:15 business meeting will be candidates for the Logan Elm School Board.

The Environmental Protection Agency had previously notified the board that their present incinerator system would not be accepted. However, the EPA has notified the board recently of possible changes in regulations. The EPA is currently changing their regulations to exempt state and local governments, including school districts, from all fees assessed for operation of boilers, incinerators and water discharge plants.

A survey was recently conducted regarding the operating levy. Questions and answers will be printed in the October issue of the board publication "News and Views".

The board members and the superintendent will meet with interested parties in each of the elementary schools during the month. They will be at Pickaway Township School on Oct. 22, Washington Township School on Oct. 24, Salt Creek School on Oct. 25 and Laurelville on Oct. 29. Each of the meetings will begin at 8 p.m.

The meeting was concluded with adoption of a new policy concerning money-making projects. The board will have to grant approval before any project of this nature can be conducted.

All the board members, superintendent Henn and two visitors were present at the meeting.

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices were lower today in profit taking as the market consolidated after tremendous gains in the last few weeks, analysts said.

They also said the Mideast crisis was helping to depress prices.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at noon was down 2.49 at 971.70. Declining Big Board issues had a more than 2-to-1 lead over gainers.

IBM was untraded awaiting news dissemination of its third-quarter profits—$2.81 a share, compared with $2.21 for the same period a year ago. Indications were it would open in the $280 to $290 range. It closed Monday at 261³/₄, up 2¹/₄.

Telex opened down 1 at 5¹/₈ on the Big Board. IBM and Telex were untraded Tuesday. The U.S. District Court judge who ordered IBM to pay Telex $352.5 million in antitrust penalties announced he had made substantial errors in his computation of the award and ordered consideration of the penalties.

On the American Stock Exchange, McCulloch Oil was the volume leader, up ¹/₈ at 5¹/₂. The Amex market-value index was down .25 at 107.62.

The Big Board's broad-based index of some 1,500 common stocks was down .19 at 59.35.

Sentence Man In Burglary

Rodney Frey, Lockbourne, was one of the three persons appearing this morning in common pleas court. Frey had pleaded guilty to breaking and entering an uninhabited building in the night season and grand larceny as a result of the burglary of an Ashville laundromat.

He was sentenced to 1-15 years in the Ohio State Reformatory for Men at Mansfield on the breaking and entering charge and 1-7 years on grand larceny. Judge William Ammer order the sentences to run concurrently.

Entering a plea of not guilty to breaking and entering an inhabited dwelling in the day season was Mack Showalter.

Also entering not guilty pleas this morning was Richard LaFollette. LaFollette is charged with three counts of issuing checks with insufficient funds. He entered not guilty pleas to all three charges.

Employment Of Handicap Vets Urged

The Circleville office of the Ohio Bureau of Employment is participating in "Hire the Handicap Veteran Week," it was announced today by Joe Zaug, office manager.

Zaug urged any employers who have positions that may be filled by handicap veterans to call him. Office hours are Monday, Wednesday and Friday, noon to 4 p.m. at Memorial Hall.

Two veterans have been placed in jobs just recently by the Circleville office and a total of seven were placed in September.

Architect Told Reduce Sewage Plant Cost

Hazen and Swayer, Inc. designer of the proposed sewage treatment plant for Circleville, was told to revise plans to bring the cost of construction down to $4.5 million.

The Circleville Board of Public Utilities met Tuesday with Frank Coughlan, an engineer for the architects, and with three council members and Mayor Frank Barnhill.

The council members attending the session were Robert Kenworthy, Harold Hoffman and president Joseph Bell. Members of the board of utilities are George Fissell, John Bowers, and David Yates. Also present were public utilities manager Charles Taylor and his assistant, Don Wolfe.

There was unanimous agreement among city officials the residents of the city could not afford increased sewer rates for a $6 million facility. That was the low bid when two contractors submitted bids in September, both of which were rejected.

Coughlan agreed with city officials that timing of the bid was poor. It was his opinion that if rebid, the cost will be lower. He agreed to include a number of alternates in the new specifications and to seek bids separately for electrical work and heating and ventilating in hopes of lowering the overall cost.

Grange News

Saltcreek Valley grange met Tuesday at the Saltcreek school with 22 members and five guests present.

The business meeting was conducted by Hoyt Timmons with reports of grange activities given by Donna Beougher, Barbara McKenzie and Paul Dunkle.

A thank you note was read from Mary DeLong thanking the grange for the gift received while she was in the hospital.

New committees appointed were: Women's Activities, Mrs. Hoyt Timmons, Mrs. Doris Edwards, Mrs. H. O. Clark, Mrs. Jeanette Armstrong, Miss Leora Sayre, and Mrs. Donna Beougher.

Flower Committee, Mrs. Neal Wolfe and Mrs. Fred DeLong; news reporter, Mrs. Eloise Dunkle.

The grange went to Washington Grange, Oct. 9 for the installation of officers.

The next meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Nov. 6.

Paul Dunkle, lecturer, presented a program entitled "It's Your Job" with a reading "Enjoying Your Job" given by Barbara McKenzie.

Roll call was answered by naming a job which one had sometime in his life and what part of it was liked the most and a contest on mental games and a grange quiz were conducted by the lecturer.

Paul Dunkle gave a recital on "Duties of Mothers" with refreshments served by Corilla Pontius, Eloise Dunkle, Doris Edwards and Leora Sayre.

LE Board Limits Gym Use; Promotes Levy

The Logan Elm School Board met in regular session last night after a carry-in dinner sponsored by the Logan Elm Classroom Teachers Association. The LECTA had invited the board members and candidates, running for school board positions to the carry-in meal.

Employment of four non-certified personnel and one home tutor was approved. Jean Smith was employed as a teacher aide to replace Kay Driesbach who had resigned earlier. Karen Hunter was hired as a part-time custodian to replace Berkley Faulkner. Substitute custodian and substitute bus driver positions were approved for Michael Cruse and Mary Jayjohn respectively. Frances McClland was appointed as home tutor for a handicapped child in the district.

A Citizens Committee has been formed to promote passage of the five mill operating levy which will be in the November ballot. The committee will meet at the George McDowell Exchange School Oct. 15 at 7:30 p.m. to discuss the issue. Anyone interested in helping is urged to attend.

The board adopted a new policy concerning the use of the gymnasium by groups other than students. It was decided that no group outside of the Logan Elm School District will be granted permission to use the gymnasium.

A request by Dow West, high school principal, was made designating May 26 as the date for baccalaureate and commencement exercises. Tentative approval to combine the services was given by the board pending results of a survey of the opinions of the senior class.

John Henn, Superintendent, read a report concerning recent inspection of the vocational agriculture facilities. Inspector Paul Pulse from the state department conducted an on-the-site inspection and decided the vocational agriculture department would have to meet with state criteria or lose their state funding. If more and better facilities are not provided the department will lose state funding amounting to $14,000 to $15,000.

Washington Twp.

PTO Will Meet

Washington Twp. Parent-Teacher Organization has scheduled an open house from 7:30 to 8 p.m. Thursday at the school.

Present for the 8:15 business meeting will be candidates for the Logan Elm School Board.

The Environmental Protection Agency had previously notified the board that their present incinerator system would not be accepted. However, the EPA has notified the board recently of possible changes in regulations. The EPA is currently changing their regulations to exempt state and local governments, including school districts, from all fees assessed for operation of boilers, incinerators and water discharge plants.

A survey was recently conducted regarding the operating levy. Questions and answers will be printed in the October issue of the board publication "News and Views".

The board members and the superintendent will meet with interested parties in each of the elementary schools during the month. They will be at Pickaway Township School on Oct. 22, Washington Township School on Oct. 24, Salt Creek School on Oct. 25 and Laurelville on Oct. 29. Each of the meetings will begin at 8 p.m.

The meeting was concluded with adoption of a new policy concerning money-making projects. The board will have to grant approval before any project of this nature can be conducted.

All the board members, superintendent Henn and two visitors were present at the meeting.

A Page Of Opinion

Protecting Endangered

Once among man's most feared predators, the wolf is now looked upon in a kindlier light. Not only is he better understood as a specie which cares for the young and the weak, but his numbers have declined to the danger point.

Perhaps fewer than 5,000 wolves remain in Alaska, the last refuge for any significant number of the animals. Like other species on the endangered list, however, the wolf has become a special target of collectors of scarce trophies.

In approving legislation which would provide federal protection to the wolf and other animals facing extinction, the House Merchant Marine and

Fisheries Committee reported: "It is paradoxical that the scarcer an animal may be, the more people may be willing to pay to acquire it."

That is an unfortunate human trait which trails endangered species from continent to continent. Protection guaranteed by stiff penalties for violators is the last refuge for these creatures.

Games We Can't Afford

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The game of "get the President" is an old one. But before the Nineteen Sixties, when so many ancient and honorable values collapsed, the game was played more or less openly. When Teddy Roosevelt and the Progressives of 1912 found themselves dissatisfied with President William Howard Taft, they fought him in the primaries and, eventually, formed a third party of their own. As it turned out, Taft lost to Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic nominee, but it was not by conniving, obscene demonstrating or the "leaking" of unsubstantiated charges. In 1948, various factions wanted to get rid of Harry Truman, but the fight was honorable, with his principal adversaries, Henry Wallace and Strom Thurmond, running unsuccessfully on their own tickets.

The dumping of Vice Presidents has also had a history. Franklin Roosevelt managed to rid himself of Henry Wallace in 1944, but the split between the two men had become obvious. When Harold Stassen undertook to eliminate Vice President Nixon in 1956, there were hints that President Eisenhower was not averse to a change. But if Eisenhower had ever wanted it that way, he was quick to forget it once Nixon had demonstrated his popularity in New Hampshire.

The Eugene McCarthy crusade to supplant Lyndon Johnson in 1968 was quite in accordance with Teddy Roosevelt's 1912 effort to replace Taft. But when it became apparent that LBJ would still dominate the 1968 Democratic National Convention, Johnson's designated successor, Hubert Humphrey, found himself victimized by the carry-overs in the Chicago streets. It was not that the Yippies and the hippies preferred Richard Nixon. The moment that Humphrey was defeated the mob—sophisticates from the urban East joining hands with the sometimes dope-damaged young who were trying to make a sinister religion out of politics—turned its attention to "getting" Nixon. If President Nixon had not come up with his imaginative foreign policy, culminating in the trips to Peking and Moscow, the older dissidents, reinforced by the campus radicals, might have toppled Nixon in 1972.

Ever since the November, 1972 verdict was in, the "get the President" movement has bubbled and seethed with special intensity. Watergate has been a most valuable battering ram in the hands of the "get Nixon" crowd. But if Nixon could be "got," there remained the hurdle of Vice President Spiro Agnew. Should Nixon resign, Agnew would not only become President but President-designate in 1976. This being no improvement from their point of view, the "getters" had to "get Agnew" too. Clark Clifford set the pitch in his New York Times Op. Ed. column suggesting a double resignation.

This column has no way of knowing who is telling the truth about the alleged kickbacks in Maryland politics when Agnew held local state office. But I can't believe that if Agnew is guilty he could be putting on such a sustained show of innocence. People who work in his office still believe in him, and they express a rather bitter animus against White House "liberals" for spreading the rumors that the Vice President would resign if he could get a good deal from the Department of Justice. They name the accused "liberals" on an off-the-record basis. Some Nixon appointees, if not the President himself, have been playing the "get the Vice President" game in the best—or worst—of the new manner.

When Speaker Carl Albert of the House of Representatives refused to grant Agnew the right to a House investigation, he made it plain that the Democrats were willing to abet the "get Agnew" forces. Since the Democrats now have a big opportunity to win it all in 1976, Albert's stand is understandable if mean. What is not understandable is the tepid defense which Agnew gets in the White House. Nixon knows what it is to "hang there slowly twisting in the wind"; he had to overcome Eisenhower's reluctance to support him in 1952 and he had to beat back Harold Stassen's attempted putsch in 1956. If Nixon lets Agnew be cut down before any incontestable verdict of guilt has been established, the conservatives will never forgive him. Naming John Connally to the Vice Presidency will in such an event be construed as a most shabby maneuver. I can't think of anything that would lend a swifter impetus to the Reagan and Rockefeller campaigns for the 1976 nomination.

The "Get the President" and "Get the Vice President" games should have gone out with the Sixties. We have a Presidential, not a Cabinet, system, and it is not going to be changed. Until such time as they have been proved guilty, both Nixon and Agnew should be allowed to function. The country can't be run on any other basis. Curiously, Republican Senator Lowell Weicker of Connecticut, who seemed by his behavior as a Watergate committee member to have joined the

"get the President" clique, has regained his old reputation for fairness by saying of Agnew that "he's innocent and that's that." At least Weicker is not playing the game of "Get the Vice President". He knows that someone must be left in office to run the U.S.

NEW YORK (AP)—Now is the time to get done the undone things in your life.

Your last excuse is lost. If you can't accomplish what you wish to accomplish in this inspiring autumn weather, then you simply never will. For October is the winetime of the year.

Yes, there is a time and place for everything, and now is the time and this is the place.

But what shall a man set out to do first? Aye, that is the question. For a man has had so many high goals and tomfool vagrant desires that it is difficult for him to set a priority on the dreams and idle wishes he first would like to make come true.

Any man's list of undone things is frighteningly long. For example, after well over half a lifetime of living I have never—

Hit two pool balls in a row in the side pocket.

Found out how snug a bug in a rug really is.

Drunk a martini in Watergate.

Helped fight a four-alarm fire.

Changed any woman's opinion on anything permanently.

Cooked shish-kebab or veal piccata.

Put hair tonic on a bald eagle.

Been the voice of a shredded wheat biscuit in a television commercial.

Had a blind date with a lady werewolf.

Woven a basket or done a portrait of Mohammad Ali in needlepoint.

Asked Howard Cosell or Bobby Riggs for an autograph.

Heard any of the figures on the Mount Rushmore memorial sneeze during the hay fever season.

Attended a sex circus or been an innocent bystander at a Hollywood orgy.

Had my hand nibbled by a Venus Fly Trap.

Planted a century plant, or lived in two centuries.

Shaved with a two-blade razor.

Sent an orchid anonymously to Phyllis Diller on her birthday.

Felt comfortable underwater except while holding my nose.

Donated my brain to Harvard.

Climbed Mount Olympus or seen the gods at play.

So many undone things to do! But what difference does it make which is done first? Anything a human being does in October feels wonderful and worthwhile. And unforgettable.

Even if he but pick up a fallen leaf and kiss it before crumbling it in his hand.

"Don't worry about it. I've heard my mother say that vase was thousands of years old."

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

My feet become swollen at the end of the day. When I rest and wake up in the morning, the swelling is gone. I worry that I may have kidney trouble. Is there a way to study the cause of such swelling?

Miss D.H., W. Va.

Dear Miss D.H.:

Swelling of the feet that occurs after long periods of standing and disappears with rest, must be studied to determine its exact cause.

The chances are great that chronic kidney disease, only one of the causes for swelling of the feet, is not necessarily the reason in your case.

Swelling, or edema, simply means that there is some interference with the proper circulation of blood. Some people develop swelling by standing on their feet for long periods of time. When they are at rest, with the feet elevated, the swelling disappears.

Now it is true that there are defects of the kidney, the heart, the lungs, and the circulatory system that can be responsible for swelling.

Many tests are available by which the circulation can be studied. Kidney function tests, with special dyes, can readily establish the proper functioning of the kidneys. Even though the chances are great that you do not have any reason for concern you will benefit from the knowledge that there is no reason for concern about the swelling you describe.

CHICAGO (AP)—You might see your banking future in the displays at the McCormick Place convention center here. The American Bankers Association is holding its annual meeting, and what do you suppose they've attracted?

Racks of dishes and silverware, displays of stuffed dolls, trays of jewelry. There are Bible salesmen and salesmen of hand-lettered scrolls, and a manufacturer of chimes and carillons who wants banks to ring in the nation's bicentennial.

The Christmas display companies are demonstrating how, with holly and wreaths and candy canes and trees, a bank can transform itself into the spirit of Santa Claus. Christmas is a time for spending, they say.

A grass seed company is urging bankers to offer "horticultural premiums," the suggestion being that the depositor's grass will grow even if his savings might not.

Need it be said that the banks want your money these days, even if they are reluctant to part with theirs in the form of a home mortgage? And they are willing to try almost any enticement, including high interest rates, to get it.

The assortment of premiums on display seems to suggest that if competition by interest rate fails—and to some extent it might have—the banks will be fighting furiously with premiums.

Mere weeks ago some banks thought they had a great thing in their "wild card" CDs—certificates of deposit unrestricted by rate limitations. But then they found a good deal of the money came not from the outside sources but from the passbooks of their own depositors.

The future of retail banking, and to some extent of society too, is demonstrated by the large number of automated, self-service devices that might reduce the bank's overhead, the customer's wait in line—and provide personal service.

One device, designed to operate from the bank's outer wall, is activated by the customer's bank card. Insert the card and a sign appears on the television screen: "Welcome to—bank, where our customers like the way we work for them."

and suddenly my face blew up and became so swollen that my husband didn't recognize me. After a few minutes, the swelling disappeared, but I was left terrified.

Mrs. I.B.E., Conn.

Dear Mrs. E.:

A sudden swelling of the face or lips may occur to people who have eaten some food to which they were highly allergic. This is called angioneurotic edema. I hope that you have carefully noted the food that you ate to be sure that you avoid it in the future.

You are indeed fortunate that the swelling disappeared so quickly. Usually it persists until some anti-allergy medicine or an injection of adrenalin is given.

Such an experience is a terrifying one, and most certainly should be called to the attention of your doctor. Many people find that some types of fish or seafood or even strawberries may cause such a reaction.

Carry an antihistamine or anti-allergy pill with you should such an experience occur again. It would be wise, if sudden swelling happens, to go to the nearest Emergency Room of a hospital if your own doctor is not immediately available.

Speaking Of Your Health: The windows of automobiles with air-conditioning are usually tightly closed. It is most important that free circulation of air be assured to avoid carbon-monoxide buildup.

Protecting Endangered

Once among man's most feared predators, the wolf is now looked upon in a kindlier light. Not only is he better understood as a specie which cares for the young and the weak, but his numbers have declined to the danger point.

Perhaps fewer than 5,000 wolves remain in Alaska, the last refuge for any significant number of the animals. Like other species on the endangered list, however, the wolf has become a special target of collectors of scarce trophies.

In approving legislation which would provide federal protection to the wolf and other animals facing extinction, the House Merchant Marine and

Fisheries Committee reported: "It is paradoxical that the scarcer an animal may be, the more people may be willing to pay to acquire it."

That is an unfortunate human trait which trails endangered species from continent to continent. Protection guaranteed by stiff penalties for violators is the last refuge for these creatures.

Games We Can't Afford

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The game of "get the President" is an old one. But before the Nineteen Sixties, when so many ancient and honorable values collapsed, the game was played more or less openly. When Teddy Roosevelt and the Progressives of 1912 found themselves dissatisfied with President William Howard Taft, they fought him in the primaries and, eventually, formed a third party of their own. As it turned out, Taft lost to Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic nominee, but it was not by conniving, obscene demonstrating or the "leaking" of unsubstantiated charges. In 1948, various factions wanted to get rid of Harry Truman, but the fight was honorable, with his principal adversaries, Henry Wallace and Strom Thurmond, running unsuccessfully on their own tickets.

The dumping of Vice Presidents has also had a history. Franklin Roosevelt managed to rid himself of Henry Wallace in 1944, but the split between the two men had become obvious. When Harold Stassen undertook to eliminate Vice President Nixon in 1956, there were hints that President Eisenhower was not averse to a change. But if Eisenhower had ever wanted it that way, he was quick to forget it once Nixon had demonstrated his popularity in New Hampshire.

On Tuesday at 7-9 p.m. there will be a meeting for all teachers, officers and board members.

Project for the Morning Circle of the Derby U.M. Church is to replace doors in the Educational building and add storm windows to same. Anybody wishing to contribute their grocery slips from Tommy's Market may turn them in to Mrs. Evelyn Hosler or put them in the collection box.

The junior high group will meet on Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Derby U.M. Church for a good time — records, fellowship and food will be shared.

The senior high (grades 7-12) will meet on Monday evening at the Derby Church from 7:30-9 p.m. All Senior High youth are welcome. Come and get together. Enjoy fun and fellowship.

Sorry to report that Herman Rowland was admitted to Riverside Methodist Hospital on Sept. 30. In talking with Mary on Monday, I learned he was in intensive care once again with severe chest pains and difficult breathing. At this writing, he has been moved to room 663. We hope he continues to improve.

Jim McPherson was taken to Doctors West Hospital on Thursday suffering from a heart attack. He underwent many tests and was allowed to come home on Wednesday of last week but must take it easy for awhile.

Raleigh Conley was rushed to the hospital on Saturday suffering a bursted blood vessel. He was allowed to return home the same day.

The community notes with sadness the passing of a former area resident of many years. Everett Eakin, 80, retired farmer, was a member of the Derby United Methodist Church and Grove City United Methodist Church. His children all attended the school here and this community shares their sorrow.

He is survived by his widow, Elma; one son, Stanley of Orient; one daughter, Mrs. Jane Haynes of Cleveland and one sister, Mrs. Mary Justus of Harrisburg. He was preceded in death by two sons who were lost during World War II.

Hope you haven't forgotten our shut-ins. Mrs. Flonnie Vance who is still a patient at Madison Elms at London is listed as fair. She is able to sit in a chair but could stand a visit from her friends or if you can't visit, please send her some cards and let her know you have not forgotten.

Also Sally Ridgway can always use some cheering up. Cards or letters are greatly appreciated, but most of all, she, like Mrs. Vance, loves to see and visit with her friends and neighbors. She is at the Margaret Clark Oakfield Convalescent Center, Washington C. H.

GOP Party Chief's Job Hampered By Scandals

WASHINGTON (AP) — George Bush thought his main job as Republican national chairman would be to convert President Nixon's 1972 landslide victory into a "New Republican Majority." Then came Watergate.

It led the 48-year-old Texan to become a party spokesman seeking to separate the Republicans from the scandal enveloping their own administration.

"There has been a need to put the party role into perspective," the former ambassador to the United Nations explained in an interview. "There has been a need to get that message across, the fact that the national committee is not responsible, that the party is not involved."

Though Bush renewed the now-familiar Republican litany that Watergate won't hurt the GOP at the polls, he conceded he has become more cautious about party prospects in the 1974 congressional elections.

He said the loss next month of Republican-held governorships in New Jersey and Virginia, which some party leaders see as a growing possibility, "wouldn't look good at all" but added that a string of GOP successes in recent local elections is proof "this isn't going to wipe out the Republican party."

Discussing his eight months on the job at GOP headquarters on Capitol Hill, Bush also said:

"There's been a recovery" in the flow of contributions, and the committee will be able to meet its $5.5-million budget, about three times as much as the Democrats, without further staff cuts or borrowing.

The controversy surrounding Vice President Spiro T. Agnew cannot help the GOP but, as for the effect on elections, "I don't think one could possibly measure that at this point." Bush said Agnew's 1976 presidential prospects certainly have not been enhanced, but he added that vindication could change that.

The launching of 1976 presidential soundings by Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Ronald Reagan, Sen. Charles H. Percy and John Connally is encouraging. "We seem to have a wealth of qualified talent," he said. "I can't help but look at the Democrats and think, in this particular area, we're in pretty good shape compared to them."

In line with an effort to make the national committee "a little more election-oriented," he stepped up party programs to provide assistance to candidates and potential candidates.

These include weekly campaign management schools, and at least three "New Majority Workshops" to stress ways of seeking support from those whose first GOP vote was cast in 1972 for President Nixon.

"These workshops will hopefully demonstrate to party leadership and candidates how to attract so-called

New Majority voters, how to attract them to Republicans when you don't have a presidential race on," Bush said.

He said special effort will be made to increase GOP strength among minorities and among ethnic groups.

Bush forecast close races in two gubernatorial elections next month.

In Virginia, Democrat-turned-Republican Mills E. Godwin is locked in a tight race with Lt. Gov. Henry Howell, running as an independent. In New Jersey, Rep. Charles Sandman, who unseated GOP Gov. William Cahill in the primary, is running against Democrat Brendan Byrne.

"I think they're both very important," Bush said. "But I don't see either of them as a test of Watergate."

He said if the GOP lost the governorships, both captured from the Democrats four years ago, "it wouldn't look good at all. We wouldn't like that."

"Of course," he said, "if we won the two, I would hope we would get tremendous acclaim, having pulled off the impossible in a year when others would have thought it would have been impossible to win anything."

In discussing the 1974 elections, Bush avoided any prediction that the GOP could win control of the House or Senate — which would take a net gain of 26 in the House and 7 in the Senate. He talked in terms of avoiding further losses.

"Maybe we're just euphoric," he

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — "I fought and honked my horn and kicked and put on the brakes and screamed for five minutes. Several people who were there have called and apologized for not helping me."

"They said they didn't know why they didn't help. They said they weren't scared. They just didn't help," Geraldine Ewalt said of her abduction by two escaped federal prisoners last week.

The escapees — Wilmer E. Scott, 35, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and William Sloan, 24, of Louisville — later were charged with six murders, three in Lexington and three at Falmouth, Ky.

"Somebody could have pulled their car in the way or thrown a book at them or done something," Mrs. Ewalt told newsmen Monday.

"There was a young man right next to me and a woman standing next to the car. I looked at both of their faces and they were looking right at me, and I pleaded with them to help."

Mrs. Ewalt was taken captive outside of Sayre School, where she was waiting for one of her children.

The escapees forced her to drive to the Ewalt home and then bound Mrs. Ewalt, a daughter and a son. After the men left, the daughter used her teeth to untie the son's bindings.

said, "but we think we have a chance to turn around what is the normal off-year syndrome, namely that the party in power loses seats in the off year."

Bush noted that President Nixon has said he will campaign for Republican candidates in 1974, and the chairman said those who hope to succeed the chief executive should follow the example of Nixon's all-out 1966 stumping for GOP congressional candidates.

"We'd like to see all these candidates out trying to help elect other Republicans in 1974," he said. "It might be a good thing for them to do for their own future, too. It didn't hurt Nixon any."

Derby News

On Tuesday at 7-9 p.m. there will be a meeting for all teachers, officers and board members.

Project for the Morning Circle of the Derby U.M. Church is to replace doors in the Educational building and add storm windows to same. Anybody wishing to contribute their grocery slips from Tommy's Market may turn them in to Mrs. Evelyn Hosler or put them in the collection box.

The junior high group will meet on Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Derby U.M. Church for a good time — records, fellowship and food will be shared.

The senior high (grades 7-12) will meet on Monday evening at the Derby Church from 7:30-9 p.m. All Senior High youth are welcome. Come and get together. Enjoy fun and fellowship.

Sorry to report that Herman Rowland was admitted to Riverside Methodist Hospital on Sept. 30. In talking with Mary on Monday, I learned he was in intensive care once again with severe chest pains and difficult breathing. At this writing, he has been moved to room 663. We hope he continues to improve.

Jim McPherson was taken to Doctors West Hospital on Thursday suffering from a heart attack. He underwent many tests and was allowed to come home on Wednesday of last week but must take it easy for awhile.

Raleigh Conley was rushed to the hospital on Saturday suffering a bursted blood vessel. He was allowed to return home the same day.

The community notes with sadness the passing of a former area resident of many years. Everett Eakin, 80, retired farmer, was a member of the Derby United Methodist Church and Grove City United Methodist Church. His children all attended the school here and this community shares their sorrow.

He is survived by his widow, Elma; one son, Stanley of Orient; one daughter, Mrs. Jane Haynes of Cleveland and one sister, Mrs. Mary Justus of Harrisburg. He was preceeded in death by two sons who were lost during World War II.

Hope you haven't forgotten our shut-ins. Mrs. Flonnie Vance who is still a patient at Madison Elms at London is listed as fair. She is able to sit in a chair but could stand a visit from her friends or if you can't visit, please send her some cards and let her know you have not forgotten.

Also Sally Ridgway can always use some cheering up. Cards or letters are greatly appreciated, but most of all, she, like Mrs. Vance, loves to see and visit with her friends and neighbors. She is at the Margaret Clark Oakfield Convalescent Center, Washington C. H.

Miss Cathy Jo Lemaster
Bride Of Charles Julian

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES THOMAS JULIAN

Miss Cathy Jo Lemaster became the bride of Mr. Charles Thomas Julian 3:45 p.m. Aug. 18th in Williamsport United Methodist Church. The Rev. R.R. Crosby officiated the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lemaster of Williamsport, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Julian, Route 1, Stoutsville.

The church was decorated with two baskets of pink gladiolus, baby's breath and fern flanked with two seven-branch candelabra. White satin bows marked the pews. Pianist, Mrs. Raymond Schleich, presented a program preceding the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother. She selected for her wedding a formal length gown of white scalloped chantilly lace. Tiers of lace cascaded into a billowing skirt and flowed to a chapel train topped with a bow of acetate peau de soie. The fitted bodice featured a sabrina neckline and long fitted sleeves ending in bridal points over her hands. A face-framing caplet of lace adorned with seed pearls held the bride's elbow length tiered veil of illusion and she carried an arrangement of white orchids surrounded by fern, atop her father's white Bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Jackie Houser and Miss Cindy Selby were bridesmaid. They wore identical floor

'October Gardening'
Program For Club

Mrs. Clyde Herron, president of Soliqua Garden Club, presided at the October meeting held Friday at the Ashville Coffee Shop.

Mrs. Georgia Hott led devotions by reading the 8th Psalm and a memorial to a past member, Mrs. Jennie Russell, followed with "The Lord's Prayer." Thirteen members and one guest answered roll call by telling of one chore to be finished this month.

A note of thanks was read from the Tedro family and a letter from Mary Shortridge who is vacationing in Wisconsin. She described the beautiful fall colors in trees and shrubs and how the people are preparing their gardens and stacking wood for the coming winter month.

Other reports were on the past Gardeners Day Out attended by five members and Mrs. Huston on a recent trip to Kingwood Center in Mansfield and a trip to the Northeast Coast States.

It was reported a donation was made in the name of the club to the Stage's Pond Fund.

Pumpkin Show schedules were distributed and discussed. The Regional Meeting was announced for Nov. 2nd at Holiday Inn, Chillicothe.

Mrs. Herron led a program on "Gardening In October" with lots of good suggestions on what to do before a hard frost takes the flowers and vegetables. Mrs. Huston displayed seven dahlias from her garden. Mrs. Dorothy Taes showed snapshots taken at the last meeting.

The meeting closed with a poem "Joy Is Like The Rain." The next meeting will be Nov. 9th at the Coffee Shop. Mrs. Willard Barch and Mrs. Glenn Rinehart will be co-hostesses.

Ashville Sr. Citizens

Octoberfest Gala Occasion
At Pickaway Country Club

Tall stocks of Indian corn and pumpkins decorated the entrance to Pickaway Country Club as members and guests gathered for the festive celebration of Octoberfest.

The dining room was gay with the colors of harvest time. Red and white checkered table covers and napkins were complimented with multi-colored candles. Many varieties of gourds, pumpkins, bittersweet and Indian corn were placed on the piano and tables.

The German buffet dinner featured sauerbraten, hot potato salad, sauerkraut and bratwurst. Following the meal, an old fashioned Sing-A-Long was held with Roger White at the piano. David Gillispie led the group singing as the words were flashed onto a screen.

Many unusual and antique beer steins and mugs were shown by their owners. Prizes were awarded to Dr. Robert Hedges for the most outstanding, Mrs. David Goldschmidt for the oldest, Mrs. Kenneth Knox, the most functional stein and David Gillispie owned the most unique. Dr. David Goldschmidt won a prize for the funniest and Mrs. Charles Ried displayed the smallest mug.

The social committee for the evening included: Mr. and Mrs. David B. Gillespie, and Mr. and Mrs. D. Richard Wylie, co-chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sarchet, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shea, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Burton.

Members and guests attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. David B. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sarchet, Mr. and Mrs. Larry McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Ohr, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shea, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McGuire.

DINNER FOR FOUR

Shrimp with sauce Louella, meat pie, salad bowl, fresh fruit and cheese.

SAUCE LOUELLE

1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon curry powder
1/2 teaspoon minced onion, scallion (green onion) or shallot
1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 1/2 tablespoons minced drained mango chutney

Mix together all the ingredients; cover and chill. Enough dip for 1 pound medium shrimp (cooked, shelled and deveined). Makes 4 servings if used alone as a first course; more if used with other hors d'oeuvre.

LUNCHEON FOR FOUR

Stuffed tomatoes, rolls, ice cream with fresh fruit sauce.

STUFFED TOMATOES

4 medium tomatoes
Salt
1 1/4 cups diced cooked turkey
1 medium avocado, diced (about 3/4 cup)
1/4 cup finely chopped celery
2 tablespoons minced green pepper
1/4 cup bottled chunky blue cheese dressing
Lettuce

Remove stem end from tomatoes; cut from top two-thirds down in quarters to form flowers. Sprinkle the inside of tomatoes with salt. In medium bowl, mix together remaining ingredients except lettuce. Fill tomato flowers with turkey mixture; place on a bed of lettuce. Makes 4 servings.

When you are having a party, check in advance the serving dishes that may need washing or polishing. Saves last-minute flurry!

Miss Cathy Jo Lemaster
Bride Of Charles Julian

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES THOMAS JULIAN

Miss Cathy Jo Lemaster became the bride of Mr. Charles Thomas Julian 3:45 p.m. Aug. 18th in Williamsport United Methodist Church. The Rev. R.R. Crosby officiated the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lemaster of Williamsport, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Julian, Route 1, Stoutsville. The church was decorated with two baskets of pink gladiolus, baby's breath and fern flanked with two seven-branch candelabra. White satin bows marked the pews. Pianist, Mrs. Raymond Schleich, presented a program preceding the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother. She selected for her wedding a formal length gown of white scalloped chantilly lace. Tiers of lace cascaded into a billowing skirt and flowed to a chapel train topped with a bow of acetate peau de soie. The fitted bodice featured a sabrina neckline and long fitted sleeves ending in bridal points over her hands. A face-framing caplet of lace adorned with seed pearls held the bride's elbow length tiered veil of illusion and she carried an arrangement of white orchids surrounded by fern, atop her father's white Bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Jackie Houser and Miss Cindy Selby was bridesmaid. They wore identical floor

'October Gardening'
Program For Club

Mrs. Clyde Herron, president of Solaquia Garden Club, presided at the October meeting held Friday at the Ashville Coffee Shop.

Mrs. Georgia Hott led devotions by reading the 8th Psalm and a memorial to a past member, Mrs. Jennie Russell, followed with "The Lord's Prayer." Thirteen members and one guest answered roll call by telling of one chore to be finished this month.

A note of thanks was read from the Tedro family and a letter from Mary Shortridge who is vacationing in Wisconsin. She described the beautiful fall colors in trees and shrubs and how the people are preparing their gardens and stacking wood for the coming winter month.

Other reports were on the past Gardeners Day Out attended by five members and Mrs. Huston on a recent trip to Kingwood Center in Mansfield and a trip to the Northeast Coast States.

It was reported a donation was made in the name of the club to the Stage's Pond Fund.

Pumpkin Show schedules were distributed and discussed. The Regional Meeting was announced for Nov. 2nd at Holiday Inn, Chillicothe.

Mrs. Herron led a program on "Gardening In October" with lots of good suggestions on what to do before a hard frost takes the flowers and vegetables. Mrs. Huston displayed seven dahlias from her garden. Mrs. Dorothy Tates showed snapshots taken at the last meeting.

The meeting closed with a poem "Joy Is Like The Rain." The next meeting will be Nov. 9th at the Coffee Shop. Mrs. Willard Barch and Mrs. Glenn Rinehart will be co-hostesses.

Octoberfest Gala Occasion
At Pickaway Country Club

Tall stocks of Indian corn and pumpkins decorated the entrance to Pickaway Country Club as members and guests gathered for the festive celebration of Octoberfest.

The dining room was gay with the colors of harvest time. Red and white checkered table covers and napkins were complimented with multi-colored candles. Many varieties of gourds, pumpkins, bittersweet and Indian corn were placed on the piano and tables.

The German buffet dinner featured sauerbraten, hot potato salad, sauerkraut and bratwurst. Following the meal, an old fashioned Sing-A-Long was held with Roger White at the piano. David Gillispie led the group singing as the words were flashed onto a screen.

Many unusual and antique beer steins and mugs were shown by their owners. Prizes were awarded to Dr. Robert Hedges for the most outstanding, Mrs. David Goldschmidt for the oldest, Mrs. Kenneth Knox, the most functional stein and David Gillispie owned the most unique. Dr. David Goldschmidt won a prize for the funniest and Mrs. Charles Ried displayed the smallest mug.

The social committee for the evening included: Mr. and Mrs. David B. Gillespie, and Mr. and Mrs. D. Richard Wylie, co-chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sarchet, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shea, and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Burton.

Members and guests attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. David B. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sarchet, Mr. and Mrs. Larry McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Ohr, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shea, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McGuire.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wylie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Knox, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Whitfield, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Elsea.

DINNER FOR FOUR

Shrimp with sauce Louella, meat pie, salad bowl, fresh fruit and cheese.

SAUCE LOUELLA

1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon curry powder
1/2 teaspoon minced onion, scallion (green onion) or shallot
1 1/2 teaspoons lemon juice
1 1/2 tablespoons minced drained mango chutney

Mix together all the ingredients; cover and chill. Enough dip for 1 pound medium shrimp (cooked, shelled and deveined). Makes 4 servings if used alone as a first course; more if used with other hors d'oeuvre.

LUNCHEON FOR FOUR

Stuffed tomatoes, rolls, ice cream with fresh fruit sauce.

STUFFED TOMATOES

4 medium tomatoes
Salt
1 1/4 cups diced cooked turkey
1 medium avocado, diced (about 3/4 cup)
1/4 cup finely chopped celery
2 tablespoons minced green pepper
1/4 cup bottled chunky blue cheese dressing
Lettuce

Remove stem end from tomatoes; cut from top two-thirds down in quarters to form flowers. Sprinkle the inside of tomatoes with salt. In medium bowl, mix together remaining ingredients except lettuce. Fill tomato flowers with turkey mixture; place on a bed of lettuce. Makes 4 servings.

When you are having a party, check in advance the serving dishes that may need washing or polishing. Saves last-minute flurry!

Troy Shriner Reigns Over LE Homecoming

By JAYNE McAFEE

Logan Elm's student body recently chose 18-year-old Troy Shriner as its 1973-74 Homecoming Queen. Troy resides with Mr. and Mrs. William Reed, Victory Drive, Laurelville. She has brown hair and brown eyes.

"Really shocked and very happy," was her reaction to being chosen. Troy likes writing poetry, people, hiking, and camping, while she dislikes getting up in the morning, homework, and being late for anything.

She is active in choir, art, and FHA. Her hobbies are swimming, traveling, dancing, and bike riding.

Fourteen-year-old Porta Martin represented the Freshman Class in Homecoming.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Martin, Route 1, Laurelville, she has brown hair and blue-gray eyes.

When chosen, Porta said, "Well, I was a little stunned—in fact, speechless."

Porta is active in sports, 4-H, and GAA. She likes people who always speak, food, horses, dogs, shopping with a bunch of girls, and lots of other things. Her only dislikes are snotty people, spinach, and lots of homework.

Porta lists collecting horse statues and crocheting as her main hobbies.

The Sophomore Class was represented by brown haired, blue eyed, Chris DeLong. Chris is 15, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan DeLong, Sr., Route 2, Laurelville. She was very happy and surprised on being chosen.

Her activities include news reporter of the FHA, GAA, and Rainbow Girls. Chris likes friendly people, the color blue, and new clothes. She dislikes tests, homework, rainy days, and unfriendly people.

Her hobbies are swimming, boating, motorcycle riding, horseback riding, camping out, and going to the movies.

Cris Brown, 16, was chosen as Junior attendant. She is the daughter of Mrs. Esther Brown, Rout 2, Laurelville. She has brown hair and blue eyes. Her reaction to being chosen was, "I was really surprised. There were so many other girls I didn't think I had a chance."

Cris' hobbies are redoing old furniture, collecting things, horses, sports, and Mike. Her activities are FHA and being a clown. She also likes to watch people because she thinks they're cool.

Seventeen-year-old Paula Weaver represented LE's Senior Class. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Weaver, Route 1, Stoutsville, Paula has light brown hair and green eyes. Her reaction was, "You've got to be kidding! Are you sure? Gee, that's great!" She lists traveling, Yamahas, banana splits, special events, senior meetings, assemblies, her good ole' standbys Lynette, Sherry, and Drema as her likes; and the frizzies, jeans that don't fit, being overweight, dieting, homework, and Mr. Welch's doggie Honda as her dislikes.

Paula's hobbies are motorcycles (but not Mr. Welch's Honda), trying to learn to surf (but not doing so well), collecting stray animals (but don't send your strays to my home), growing and arranging flowers, and collecting candles. She is active in choir and karate.

The Queen and her court reigned at Friday's game with Pickerington.

A new addition to Logan Elm High School this year is Mr. Jeffrey Smallwood. Mr. Smallwood resides in Circleville and graduated from Ohio State University in the spring of 1973. At Logan Elm his day is filled with 165 delightful Sophomores to whom he attempts to teach English.

Mr. Smallwood is a happy individual with real likes and dislikes. Among his likes are red suspenders, Groucho Marx, and listening to people. He picnics, swims, and hikes in his spare time—which isn't much with 165 Sophomores.

His dislikes are having to plan things ahead of time, getting up in the morning, and people who won't accept a person for what he is. His two main ambitions in life are to become a cowboy (we think he missed the boat) and to be plain lazy.

We all wish Mr. Smallwood good luck for the remainder of the year and hope he is still smiling on May 31.

The Logan Elm Marching Band participated Sept. 29, in the ninth annual West Jefferson Marching Band Contest at West Jefferson High School, receiving a third place trophy in the novice class. The band was required to do a complete half-time show in eight minutes or less.

This year's band and majorettes show real spirit and have a lot of what they call "band pride." When asked to comment, Mr. Price, band director, said, "The competition was stiffer than I expected in the novice class. I think we did a pretty good job for the first time being in a marching band contest. This year's band is the first that I've had enough confidence in to take to a contest. The band is dedicated, and the only thing we lack is size."

It looks like the marching band is off and running on what appears to be a winning season for them.

Candidates Chosen For Pumpkin Show

By DEBBIE PAYNE AND SUSAN MAYBERRY

Logan Elm's Junior candidate for Pumpkin Show this year is Kathy Valentine. Kathy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Valentine, Route 1, Circleville, was very excited about being chosen. Her reaction was, "Oh, you're kidding."

Kathy is 17 years old, has brown hair and blue eyes. On a 5'6" frame, her statistics come out 34-24-34. Her school activities include G.A.A., Student Council, Elm Log, and Skandha Staff. Her hobbies are swimming, bike riding, and playing the piano.

When asked what Pumpkin delicacy she looks forward to at the Pumpkin

Show she replied, "Pumpkin Donuts."

Everyone from Logan Elm wishes Kathy the best of luck.

Chosen as Miss Senior Logan Elm to participate in the Pumpkin Show was Linda Sykes, daughter of Clair and Mary Jane Sykes, Route 5, Circleville. The blonde haired, blue eyed senior is 17 years old.

Linda is active in G.A.A., the gymnastics club, and the Student Council. She enjoys sewing, football, soccer, and collecting Mannix cats.

Linda is 5'5", weighs 113 pounds, and measures 33-25-33.

As her favorite pumpkin delicacy Linda chose the good ole' time favorite, pumpkin pie.

Upon being chosen she said, "Oh, no." Everyone from LE wishes her luck.

FFA Holds First Meeting

By TONY CARROLL

The Logan Elm Chapter of FFA held a meeting Sept. 17 in the high school cafeteria. Business was discussed and then ceremonies were conducted in which 25 new greenhands were accepted into the chapter. The new members were initiated and officially became a part of the Logan Elm Chapter.

The FFA went to the Farm Science Review Sept. 19 in Columbus. The club met at school and left at 7 a.m.

Each person was assigned to view a particular display so that he could report his findings to the rest of the class.

The Junior Vocational Agriculture Class has been studying soils and land judging for the land judging contest to be held. Members have made several field trips to farms around the school.

Out of the twelve boys in the class, four will be picked to compete in the contest.

Steve Sargent Is Student President

By SUSAN MAYBERRY

This year's president of the Logan Elm Student Council is Steve Sargent. Steve is the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sargent, 240 Pawnee Drive. He became president through a school-wide election earlier this year, and he has done an outstanding job so far.

Steve is also active in football, basketball, and track; and he enjoys "fishin' and huntin'."

The first project completed by the Student Council were the homecoming and various contests dealing with the Pumpkin Show.

Commenting on the job ahead of him, Steve says, "It's too much work," but we've noticed that he seems to be enjoying it.

Low-Cost Food For Generals Hit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Les Aspin says he'll ask the General Accounting Office to investigate elaborate $1 dinners for generals.

Pentagon cafeteria prices keep going up for GIs and civilians, but generals "still gorge themselves on a sumptuous three-course dinner for only $1," Aspin says.

The Wisconsin Democrat says one recent menu for generals had a choice of six entrees, eight appetizers and 17 desserts.

CBC To Celebrate 25th Anniversary

CIRCLEVILLE BIBLE COLLEGE CAMPUS

Twenty-five years from the time a group of ten students met for first session of what was known then as the Mount of Praise Bible School, the same group expects to meet on the campus of Circleville Bible College to help climax the first quarter century of operation.

Friday is the big day that brings to a close the 25th year of educational service and starts the college on its way toward the next goal-50 years of successfully fulfilling the vision of its founders of providing a source of higher learning and Christian inspiration to the rising generation and of supplying the church with an adequately trained ministry.

During the quarter century just completed many changes have occurred. The beginning was simply a matter of winterizing some of the existing Mount of Praise Campmeeting facilities on East Ohio Street. Temporary masonite panels, capable of being set up in a variety of patterns to meet existing needs were used to create classrooms, chapel, library and dining facilities in what was then and is now the campmeeting dining room.

Certainly even that was a step better than the early American concept of a college as consisting of Mark Hopkins on one end of a log and a student on the other, but it was a far cry from the institution as it stands today. The gently rolling 40-acre campus with its six brick buildings, mobile home park, tennis court, playing fields and supporting facilities has become an unmistakable landmark on the eastern approach to the city.

As was intended from the beginning, the new campus is dominated by the colonial style chapel with its towering spire, austere white and oak appointments and unmistakable atmosphere of worship.

From its modest beginning with but ten students, the college now enrolls about 200. From scraping along with make-shift quarters, the campus has become a multi-million dollar asset to the community. From non-existence to associate membership (candidate status for accreditation) with the American Association of Bible Colleges the college has grown in educational stature. From vision to now supplying pulpit and mission leadership to a wide selection of denominations and mission boards, this is the story of Circleville Bible College in its twenty-five years of service.

Visitors are welcome at all times, but the college extends a special invitation to the local community to mingle with its faculty, students, and alumni Friday. Classes will terminate early to permit the day to start with a welcoming chapel at 10:45 a.m. Special honor will be paid to the six men who have headed the institution: Rev. A. L. Keaton 1948, 1952; Rev. G. C. Johnson 1952-1953; Rev. Richard Humble 1953-1956; Rev. Glen Johnson 1956-1959; Rev. Morton Dorsey 1959-1964; and Rev. Melvin Maxwell 1964 to present.

Following a lunch which is open to all, the Alumni Association will conduct an interesting afternoon of enlightening fellowship which will feature the dedication and naming of the residence halls and athletic fields. During the course of the day student guides will be available to conduct visitors through the college facilities.

Y Notes

The Pickaway County Family YMCA Fall Informal Education Classes are in full swing, with some classes starting last week and a few starting this week.

The Women's Evening Exercise Class, which had insufficient registration on the first night was cancelled then re-opened after several more registered and showed interest in it. This Women's Evening Exercise class will officially re-open today 9-10 p.m. at the YMCA with Joan Eller, instructor. There are still openings in this class so call the Y for details or come to the first class Wednesday night.

Much interest has been shown in the advertised Girl's Gymnastics Class which will officially start today. Classes are as follows: Grades (1-6) Beginning Gymnastics at YMCA 3:30-5 p.m.; Grades (1-6) Intermediate and Advanced Gymnastics at Y-5-6:30 p.m.; Junior and Senior High Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced Gymnastics 7:00-8:30 p.m. at the YMCA.

Miss Debbie Briede, Ohio State University, co-captain of the gymnastics team, is the teacher. We are very fortunate to obtain her and it is hoped that there will be good registration in all three classes. There are limited openings in the Grade Beginning Class and the Junior and Senior High School Class, and several openings in the Intermediate and Advanced Grade School class. We will be happy to have you call the Y for details at 474-8621.

CBC To Celebrate 25th Anniversary

CIRCLEVILLE BIBLE COLLEGE CAMPUS

Twenty-five years from the time a group of ten students met for first session of what was known then as the Mount of Praise Bible School, the same group expects to meet on the campus of Circleville Bible College to help climax the first quarter century of operation.

Friday is the big day that brings to a close the 25th year of educational service and starts the college on its way toward the next goal-50 years of successfully fulfilling the vision of its founders of providing a source of higher learning and Christian inspiration to the rising generation and of supplying the church with an adequately trained ministry.

During the quarter century just completed many changes have occurred. The beginning was simply a matter of winterizing some of the existing Mount of Praise Camp-meeting facilities on East Ohio Street. Temporary masonite panels, capable of being set up in a variety of patterns to meet existing needs were used to create classrooms, chapel, library and dining facilities in what was then and is now the campmeeting dining room.

Certainly even that was a step better than the early American concept of a college as consisting of Mark Hopkins on one end of a log and a student on the other, but it was a far cry from the institution as it stands today. The gently rolling 40-acre campus with its

Two Programs Presented By Otterbein

Two upcoming entertainment programs offered to the public by Otterbein College are the college theatre production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" and a performance of the English Sinfonia.

The college production of the Shakespearean classic will be Oct. 10 at 7:30 and Oct. 11-13 at 8:15 p.m. The ageless love comedy will be updated with a free-form set and contemporary costumes.

As a part of the Otterbein Artist Series, the English Sinfonia conducted by Neville Dilkes will be presented Oct. 25 at 8:15 p.m. The ensemble consists of violins, violas, cellos and a bass with oboes and French horns. The program will present selections from the Classic and Baroque periods. A special feature of the Sinfonia is flute soloist John Solum, formerly of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

Tickets for both events may be obtained at the Cowan Hall box office. For further information, phone 891-3331.

NORTHWEST INLAND
Clear tonight with patches of heavy fog developing late tonight. Lows in the mid to upper 50s. Thursday partly cloudy and continued mild with highs in the 70s.

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
Patches of dense fog over parts of Ohio this morning were expected to linger through early afternoon, then dissipate under sunny skies.
Generally clear conditions tonight will bring cooler temperatures, allowing fog to develop again by late tonight.
Temperatures just before daybreak ranged mostly in the 50s, with the coolest reading 49 degrees at Youngstown.
Highs today will be in the 70s, possibly reaching the 80s in southern sections.
A slow-moving cold front was expected to bring showers into Ohio by the weekend.

six brick buildings, mobile home park, tennis court, playing fields and supporting facilities has become an unmistakable landmark on the eastern approach to the city.

As was intended from the beginning, the new campus is dominated by the colonial style chapel with its towering spire, austere white and oak appointments and unmistakable atmosphere of worship.

From its modest beginning with but ten students, the college now enrolls about 200. From scraping along with make-shift quarters, the campus has become a multi-million dollar asset to the community. From non-existence to associate membership (candidate status for accreditation) with the American Association of Bible Colleges the college has grown in educational stature. From vision to now supplying pulpit and mission leadership to a wide selection of denominations and mission boards, this is the story of Circleville Bible College in its twenty-five years of service.

Visitors are welcome at all times, but the college extends a special invitation to the local community to mingle with its faculty, students, and alumni Friday. Classes will terminate early to permit the day to start with a welcoming chapel at 10:45 a.m. Special honor will be paid to the six men who have headed the institution: Rev. A. L. Keaton 1948, 1952; Rev. G. C. Johnson 1952-1953; Rev. Richard Humble 1953-1956; Rev. Glen Johnson 1956-1959; Rev. Morton Dorsey 1959-1964; and Rev. Melvin Maxwell 1964 to present.

Following a lunch which is open to all, the Alumni Association will conduct an interesting afternoon of enlightening fellowship which will feature the dedication and naming of the residence halls and athletic fields. During the course of the day student guides will be available to conduct visitors through the college facilities.

1040 U.S. Income Tax Return for 1972 Taxpayers Ask IRS

(Q.) I became severely disabled and unable to work in December 1972. Social security started paying disability benefits to me, my wife, and child for the month of June 1973. Shouldn't my benefits have begun last December, the month I became disabled?

(A.) No. The waiting period for disability benefits is 5 months. You became disabled in December of last year, and your waiting period ended in May; so your first monthly payment was for June. During the waiting period some people may recover from their disabilities. The social security law does not provide payments for short-term or partial disability; it only pays for severe and prolonged disability.

(Q.) A friend told me that my grandson, who lives with me, might be able to get social security payments when I retire this year. Is this true?

(A.) In certain cases, a grandchild can get payments based on a grandparent's earnings record. The grandchild's parents must be disabled or must have died before the grandparent started getting monthly benefits. The grandchild must have been under 18 when he began living with the grandparent. If you want more information, call, write, or visit any social security office.

(Q.) I'll be 72 next month. How much can I earn during 1973 and still get my full monthly social security payments?

(A.) You can earn as much as $2,100 for the months of 1973 before October, when you reach 72. No matter how much you earned in those 9 months, however, you can get your full social security payment for any month you neither earned over $175 nor did substantial work in self-employment. After you're 72, your social security payments will not be affected by your earnings.

(Q.) I'll soon be 65. I was told that if I don't perform substantial services in my business I can get social security payments. What is meant by "substantial services"?

(A.) "Substantial services" refers to the amount of time you work in your business, the nature of your services, the type of business, and the relationship of your activities before retirement to those after retirement. Usually, 45 or more hours of work in a month is considered "substantial services." Less than 45 hours may be considered substantial if the service is managing a large business or working in a highly skilled occupation. You can get more detailed information at any social security office.

Copter Crash Kills Ohioan

MEMACLIN, Pa. (AP) — An Ohio man is dead and two others have been hospitalized after their helicopter crashed and burned at a coal mine dock on the Monongahela River.

The dead man was identified as Daniel J. Simko, 36, of Mentor-on-the-Lake, Ohio. Greene County coroner Frank Behm said Simko died of asphyxiation due to smoke and flame inhalation.

State police said the aircraft was apparently descending when it struck a power line, crashed into the pier and burst into flame. The accident happened about 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Fashions Stay Same At Frederick's

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The more things change in the fashion world, the more they stay the same at Frederick's of Hollywood.

While everyone else was promoting the braless look, Frederick's kept right on selling 50 different versions of the push-in, push-up padded bra.

While the shoe industry clogged the market with clunky platforms, Frederick's kept stocking up on sling-back pumps with 5-inch stiletto heels.

And when the midi swept the nation, Frederick's never abandoned the mini.

In business for 27 years and making more money every year, Frederick's of Hollywood has ignored fickle fashion trends and stayed with a basic philosophy: women should dress for men and men like sexy women.

"You show a man an elegant miss and a sexy babe and the sexy babe will win out every time," said Fred Mellinger, the real Frederick, scion of an empire built on foam rubber, clingy knits, maribou-trimmed nightgowns, rhinestone-studded skyscraper heels and naughty little items like crotchless panty hose.

"My concept of sexiness and female beauty is nice boobs with cleavage, slim waist, good hips and long shapely legs. I design clothes inspired by the beautiful women of the world who upset kingdoms and broke empires. I make clothes for the woman who walks into a room and is hated by the women but desired by the men," said Mellinger, a charming, roguish 57-year-old.

Mellinger has had the idea since the days he was a mere underwear buyer in New York 30 years ago. He kept getting in trouble with his bosses for suggesting things like panties with a zipper and a heart-shaped lock, so he set off on his own to prove that he wasn't the only one who liked the sexy babe.

Today, Frederick's of Hollywood has 69 stores in such supposedly unsexy places like Omaha and Kansas City.

Sales in 1972 were $12 million, a 25 per cent increase over 1971. More than 8 million catalogues featuring more than 500 items are shipped all over the world each year.

In November a collection of catalogues will be released in a 256-page book called "Frederick's of Hollywood, 1947-1973 — 26 years of mail-order seduction."

The catalogues, which are released eight times a year, are filled with drawings of longhaired, tiny-waisted women wearing seductive items like a see-through mesh jumpsuit captioned "No, no Nannette" and tight pants called "Hips Ahoy."

A pleated mini-dress is labeled "Flirty Purty." Another jump suit with cut-outs in strategic places is called "Jeepers Peepers." There are "Fringed Frenzy" nightgowns, "Mate-bait" gold lame evening dresses, and "Sin-sational" hip-huggers.

Every few pages in the catalogue is a picture of dapper Frederick saying things like "Be the MOST with my fabulous originals designed ... to bring out the REAL YOU!"

The picture hasn't been updated to show Mellinger's greying hair and fuller cheeks. "Why that would be like tampering with a trademark, like changing the picture of the Smith Brothers on their cough drop box!" Mellinger protests.

Computerized X-Rays Boost Accuracy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Georgetown University scientists today announced development of a new, computerized method of X-raying the human body and said it's expected to provide "unprecedented accuracy" for medical diagnosis.

The developers said the new technique provides X-ray pictures having four times more detail than conventional ones. They said it opens the way to "precisely defining and locating such disorders as tumors, hemorrhages, blood clots, trauma (injuries), cysts, strokes, and improperly healed bones" without risk to the patient.

The technique, employing a special "scanning" device, is designed to produce cross-sectional X-ray views of any part of the body and display them automatically on a television screen.

The method was described as offering special powers for diagnosing brain disorders.

The device utilizing the new method is called the "ACTA Scanner" — The "ACTA" meaning "automatic computerized transverse axial." Only a prototype model has so far been built, at a cost of $200,000.

Concert Hall Given 'Tuneup'

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A Los Angeles physicist gave the auditorium its final "tuneup," the Akron Symphony Orchestra tuned its instruments, and director Louis Lane gave the downbeat as the new E. J. Thomas Performing Arts Hall held its first gala performance Tuesday night.

The tuneup was performed by physicist Vern O. Knudsen to adjust various architectural devices built into the $13.9 million multipurpose hall for optimum sound delivery.

Demo Candidate Screening Slated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Democratic Headquarters has announced a timetable for a candidate screening committee that is expected to make endorsements for the May 1974 primary.

The 27-member committee apparently will end its work by about Jan. 1, despite the objections of some Democrats, including John Glenn, who thinks the state organization should steer clear of primary election endorsements.

Oct. 18 is the date of the committee's organization meeting, but sessions for the purpose of interviewing candidates will not begin until after municipal elections in November.

State Democratic Chairman William A. Lavelle and David Meeker, the party's executive director, have asked all Democrats planning to run for state office in 1974 to notify state headquarters of their plans by registered or certified mail.

Candidates were advised in the latest edition of the Ohio Democrat that interviews will be conducted at party headquarters in Columbus, and that efforts will be made to arrange a date of mutual convenience.

After the interviews, Lavelle will communicate the "findings" of the committee to the State Democratic Executive Committee.

Lavelle said candidates may be permitted to make an appearance before the executive committee, but only after they had been interviewed by the candidates committee. Plans call for the candidates group to complete its work, report to the executive committee, and for the executive committee to act on recommendations "prior to the end of calendar year 1973 insofar as possible," the chairman said.

The executive committee voted 37-18 to establish the committee after an angry speech by Glenn in which he accused Gov. John J. Gilligan and state party leaders of loading the panel against him in favor of Cleveland Howard Matzenbam.

This was after Gilligan requested Glenn to run for lieutenant governor, the former astronaut said.

The makeup of the committee is as follows: One representative each from Federated Democratic Women of Ohio, Black Elected Democrats of Ohio, Young Democrats, Ohio Democratic Lawyers Association,

Democrats of the Ohio House, Democrats of the Ohio Senate, and Ohio AFL-CIO, and the Ohio United Auto Workers Union.

In addition, the Democratic chairmen of Butler, Cuyahoga, Franklin, Hamilton, Jefferson, Lake, Lorain, Lucas, Mahoning, Montgomery, Stark, Summit, and Trumbull counties will serve.

Meeker will be a member, and there will be one member each named by Gilligan, Atty. Gen. William J. Brown, Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson, and State Treasurer Gertrude W. Donahey.

Continue Search For 2 Walkaways

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Police today continued searching for two Cincinnati Workhouse escapees who walked away from a cleanup detail outside the prison Tuesday. They were identified as David Gibson, 39, and Philip Carlin, 33. Both were serving terms for misdemeanors.

Demo Candidate Screening Slated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Democratic Headquarters has announced a timetable for a candidate screening committee that is expected to make endorsements for the May 1974 primary.

The 27-member committee apparently will end its work by about Jan. 1, despite the objections of some Democrats, including John Glenn, who thinks the state organization should steer clear of primary election endorsements.

Oct. 18 is the date of the committee's organization meeting, but sessions for the purpose of interviewing candidates will not begin until after municipal elections in November.

State Democratic Chairman William A. Lavelle and David Meeker, the party's executive director, have asked all Democrats planning to run for state office in 1974 to notify state headquarters of their plans by registered or certified mail.

Candidates were advised in the latest edition of the Ohio Democrat that interviews will be conducted at party headquarters in Columbus, and that efforts will be made to arrange a date of mutual convenience.

After the interviews, Lavelle will communicate the "findings" of the committee to the State Democratic Executive Committee.

Lavelle said candidates may be permitted to make an appearance before the executive committee, but only after they had been interviewed by the candidates committee. Plans call for the candidates group to complete its work, report to the executive committee, and for the executive committee to act on recommendations "prior to the end of calendar year 1973 insofar as possible," the chairman said.

The executive committee voted 37-18 to establish the committee after an angry speech by Glenn in which he accused Gov. John J. Gilligan and state party leaders of loading the panel against him in favor of Cleveland Howard Matzenbam.

This was after Gilligan requested Glenn to run for lieutenant governor, the former astronaut said.

The makeup of the committee is as follows: One representative each from Federated Democratic Women of Ohio, Black Elected Democrats of Ohio, Young Democrats, Ohio Democratic Lawyers Association,

Democrats of the Ohio House, Democrats of the Ohio Senate, and Ohio AFL-CIO, and the Ohio United Auto Workers Union.

In addition, the Democratic chairmen of Butler, Cuyahoga, Franklin, Hamilton, Jefferson, Lake, Lorain, Lucas, Mahoning, Montgomery, Stark, Summit, and Trumbull counties will serve.

Meeker will be a member, and there will be one member each named by Gilligan, Atty. Gen. William J. Brown, Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson, and State Treasurer Gertrude W. Donahey.

Top Tilts On Tap For County Gridders

County grid action this Friday will find Teays Valley traveling to West Jefferson in a crucial Metropolitan League clash, Westfall going to Zane Trace in a Scioto Valley Conference contest and Logan Elm hosting the powerful Berne Union Rockets in a Mid-State encounter.

The Metro League leadership will be on the line when the Vikings take on the always dangerous Roughriders. Both teams are unbeaten in league play although West Jefferson has a 0-0 tie with Franklin Heights on its side of the ledger.

The Roughriders are 2-0-1 in league competition and 3-1-1 overall. West Jefferson was a pre-season pick to be co-favorites for all the marbles in the race for the Metro crown along with Dublin. They are a veteran team with a solid defensive unit. The Roughriders attack is powered by Don Cilli, a 5-foot-7 scatback who was one of the leading rushers in the Metro last fall.

The Vikings, 3-0 in League play and 4-1 overall, are moving into the contest with league wins over Olentangy, Franklin Heights and Marysville. The only blot on the Teays Valley season ledger is an opening game loss to Groveport.

Combining a strong defense along with a balanced offensive attack, the Vikings have rapidly developed into one of the top teams in the area. The ground game is powered by tailback Terry Lambert, leading scorer in the Metro League.

The starting offensive lineup for the Vikings will be: Lance Henson and Boyd Palsgrove, ends; Lee Stiles and Dennis Stir, tackles; Bill Hurley and Keith Pettibone, guards; Karl Snyder at center; Chuck Glitt, quarterback; Mike Pettibone, fullback; Steve Williams, halfback; Lambert, tailback.

Defensively, it will be: Henson and Keith Pettibone, ends; Brad Black and Steve Gray, tackles; Hurley, middle guard; Bill Breon and Mike Reed, linebackers; Tony Sayre and Bob Weber, invert backs; Lambert and Glitt, safeties.

Westfall is looking for its second win of the season against the Pioneers of Zane Trace. The Mustangs are 0-3 in the SVC and 1-4 overall, downing Madison Plains for their only win of the season.

Zane Trace has an inexperienced ball club and lack team depth but have shown signs of improvement as the season rolls along. The Pioneers will be looking for their second win of the season against the Mustangs.

Starting on the offensive unit for Westfall will be: Bill Kiser, center; Tim Lett and Tim Hegarty, guards; Walter Garland and Jim Dawson, tackles; Randy Puckett and Joe Angles, ends; Dave Shannon, quarterback; Artie Dick, fullback; Rick Gaa and Terry Hegarty, halfbacks.

On defense it will be: Tim Hegarty, middle guard; John Long and Dick, linebackers; Dawson and Kiser, tackles; Puckett and Randy Hildenbrand, ends; Gaa and Shannon, cornerbacks; Dave Bullock and Gary Thompson, halfbacks.

Berne Union is the defending champion of the Mid State League and is undefeated in five starts this year.

"We feel the pressure is on them," LE coach Bob Stant said today. "We don't have anything to lose and they have everything to lose. If we can beat them, that puts the league title up for grabs with everyone having at least one loss."

Berne Union is big, strong, physical and well coached Stant reports. They like to run off tackle or around end and they don't pass too much. Their best players are Mark Hedges, a 5-foot-7, 160-pound guard; Ray Derflinger, a 6-foot-1, 220-pound tackle and three backs, Bill Moran, Roy Waites and Charles Yost. Their only weakness if they have any might be depth since they play 10 boys both ways. They run from a full house, use a flanker and a wing man from the pro set and the I. Defensive they use a 5-2 with a monster and sometimes a 6-0. They are the leading offensive and defensive team in the league.

"We can't make mistakes," Stant emphasized. The only doubtful starter for the Braves this week is Brian Herron. Offensively the starters should be: Ned Reichelderfer, tight end; Seth Driesbach and Marty Fullen tackles; Stew Jones and Steve Morrison, Guards; Chris Payne, center; Brad Luckhart, split end; Steve Sargent, quarterback; Dan Ramey, fullback; Wayne Linthicum and Steve Rawlins, halfbacks.

Defensive starters will be: Brian Barr, Driesbach, Morrison, Jones, Fullen, Chris Payne, Rawlins, Reichelderfer, Terry Crumley, Luckhart, Sargent.

Reds, Mets Set Tie-Breaker

NEW YORK (AP) — They threw an apple, a tennis ball and an egg at Pete Rose, but the only flying object he cared about was a baseball.

Rose hit it over the fence for a home run in the 12th inning to give the Cincinnati Reds a 2-1 victory over the New York Mets and tie the National League playoffs at two games apiece.

"I wasn't thinking about a home run, I must confess, but I wanted to hit that ball all the way to the airport," said

Rose, who apparently felt he struck a blow back at the Mets' fans for their animosity toward him.

Rose had been the object of scorn here, ever since his fight with New York shortstop Bud Harrelson, a scuffle that triggered a full-scale melee during Monday's bizarre game.

"Sure, I heard them booing at me every time I showed my face," said Rose. "They kept throwing things at me, too. But that only makes me play harder."

Cast as the villain, Rose heard the boos once more as he stepped to the plate in the top of the 12th inning to face New York reliever Harry Parker.

Someone threw an apple at Rose, but he brushed it aside with his bat, looking darkly toward the stands. Then came the tennis ball and the egg.

It was reminiscent of Monday's affair, when Rose was showered by

A's Top Orioles; Lead Series

OAKLAND (AP) — Oakland shortstop Bert Campaneris, the 155-pounder dubbed "Baby Ruth" after home runs in two straight games, predicts the A's will win their way into the World Series again today.

"I don't care who's pitching, we'll win," declared the explosive little infielder whose 11th-inning leadoff home run beat Baltimore 2-1 Tuesday and gave Oakland a 2-1 edge in the American League playoffs.

The defending world champions will represent the American League a second straight year if they beat the Orioles' ace right-hander, Jim Palmer, today. He shut them out 6-0 in the opener of the best-of-five playoff series.

Oakland left-hander Vida Blue didn't last through the first inning in that one but he'll be back facing the Orioles again.

"We have a well-rested Blue who has shown he can pitch well against anybody," said Oakland Manager Dick Williams. "Certainly we have a chance against Palmer."

Campaneris hit only four home runs during the regular season but he led off the second game of the championship series with a homer and ended the third game with one. That provided the pitching victory to southpaw Ken Holtzman, who threw a three-hitter.

Campaneris, who was suspended the final three games of last year's playoffs when he threw his bat at a rival pitcher, said he hit a slider, low and inside, for his game-winning homer.

"I wanted to throw it further inside," commented a disappointed Mike Cuellar who had allowed only three hits before Campy's homer.

The A's victory put all the pressure on Baltimore and Palmer.

"We have our backs to the wall," admitted the hurler who won 22 games and lost nine on the season. "If I don't pitch well and we lose, we're eliminated. I'll try to pitch the same way I did in Baltimore."

Earl Williams got Baltimore off to a 1-0 lead in the second inning when he slammed a Holtzman fast ball over the left field fence, the Orioles' first homer of the series.

Holtzman then retired 14 batters in order before walking Tommy Davis in the seventh.

Oakland didn't score until the eighth, when Manager Williams' strategy paid off.

He sent Jesus Alou up to hit for catcher Ray Fosse and Alou golfed a bloop into left field for a single. Fleet Allan Lewis went in to run for Alou.

Williams had selected Angel Mangual originally as the pinch hitter for second baseman Dick Green but, with a bunt the obvious play, he switched and used Mike Andrews.

The bunt went to Cuellar, who was off balance when he fielded it. So he threw to first—the sacrifice working. Campaneris struck out but Joe Rudi banged a broken-bat single off his fists to score Lewis from second.

Fearless Forecaster Chooses Oklahoma

NEW YORK (AP) — Now, football fans, you're going to learn how a fearless forecaster operates.

The text for the lesson is Saturday's upcoming battle between Oklahoma and Texas in Dallas. This is one of the sport's classic confrontations year in and year out.

Oklahoma won last year 27-0. Accordingly, the pick for this year... Oklahoma 27-0.

Last week's count was 44 right, 19 wrong and two ties for .698. For the season, it's 196-718—734.

Nebraska at Missouri: These Big Eight rivals have been playing since 1892 and Nebraska's 62-0 romp last year was the series' biggest rout. Missouri wants revenge...but gets a loss instead. Nebraska 24-13.

Ohio State at Wisconsin: Two weeks ago, Wisconsin was called the best 0-3 team in the country. Now, they're the best 1-3 team. And with Ohio State and Michigan back-to-back the Badgers may soon be the best 1-5 team. The polls say Ohio State's the best team of all. Ohio State 28-14.

Alabama at Florida: 'Bama's scores follow an interesting pattern—66-0, 28-13, 44-0, 28-14. Ergo...Alabama 22-0.

Washington State at Southern California: Jim Sweeney says WSU has the same kind of talent as USC. Sweeney's been hearing too many leprechauns. Southern Cal 27-7.

Michigan at Michigan State: State gave Notre Dame all it could handle last weekend before bowing 14-10. They did the same to Michigan last year and lost 10-0. That takes a Spartan constitution. Michigan 20-3.

Army at Penn State: Tom Cahill is hearing the same old lines—Army football has hit a nosedive, the other team has too many guns. "People are always extending their sympathy, but I'm not interested in sympathy." Penn State 35-0.

Georgia Tech at Tennessee: Tennessee's porous pass defense and next week's match with Alabama make it close. Tennessee 20-14.

Notre Dame at Rice: Rice will have 80 Houston area priests on its bench to counter Notre Dame's built-in advantage. "Other schools have Dad's Day," says Coach Al Conover. "This is our first annual Father's Day. We've asked the priests to wear their game uniforms. We even made them pledge they'd root for Rice. We're going to outspiritualize Notre Dame." Notre Dame 21-7.

Louisiana State at Auburn: Defense is the name of this Southeastern Conference game. LSU 13-7.

Virginia Tech at Houston: Houston hasn't lost, Tech hasn't won. Houston 35-17.

UCLA at Stanford: From this one figures to come Southern Cal's chief

NEW YORK (AP) — They threw an apple, a tennis ball and an egg at Pete Rose, but the only flying object he cared about was a baseball.

Someone threw an apple at Rose, but he brushed it aside with his bat, looking darkly toward the stands. Then came the tennis ball and the egg.

It was reminiscent of Monday's affair, when Rose was showered by pop bottles, beer cans, batteries and a whiskey bottle in left field. The garbage shower took place after the Rose-Harrelson fight and the resulting battle royal.

The fans remembered Monday's infamous "Rose-Bud Incident" and continually hissed the Cincinnati left fielder before he pumped Parker's 2-2 fastball out of sight over the right field fence.

Then the 50,786 fans were dramatically silent, for the most part, as Rose circled the bases with his right hand held high in a clenched-fist gesture of victory.

"I wasn't trying to rub it into the fans, even though I heard them booing me," said Rose. "I was just happy. I would have given a week's pay to have gone four-for-four today and to have scored four runs."

He didn't have a bad day, as it was. Rose singled twice and walked before smashing his second homer of the this five-game series.

A's Top Orioles; Lead Series

OAKLAND (AP) — Oakland shortstop Bert Campaneris, the 155-pounder dubbed "Baby Ruth" after home runs in two straight games, predicts the A's will win their way into the World Series again today.

"I don't care who's pitching, we'll win," declared the explosive little infielder whose 11th-inning leadoff home run beat Baltimore 2-1 Tuesday and gave Oakland a 2-1 edge in the American League playoffs.

Oakland didn't score until the eighth, when Manager Williams' strategy paid off.

He sent Jesus Alou up to hit for catcher Ray Fosse and Alou golfed a bloop into left field for a single. Fleet Allan Lewis went in to run for Alou.

Williams had selected Angel Mangual originally as the pinch hitter for second baseman Dick Green but, with a bunt the obvious play, he switched and used Mike Andrews.

The bunt went to Cuellar, who was off balance when he fielded it. So he threw to first—the sacrifice working. Campaneris struck out but Joe Rudi banged a broken-bat single off his fists to score Lewis from second.

McDowell Loses To A-C, 36-16

The Logan Elm McDowell Junior High football team lost to Amanda-Clearcreek 38-16 Tuesday.

Junior High coach Doane Wiggins singled out three boys for their outstanding play in the loss.

David Cain, who went both ways as a lineman and linebacker Dan Calton who scored both touchdowns and Tony Crist for his defensive play and the fact he scored both conversions after the touchdowns.

The McDowell gridgers have a 1-2 record on the season and play at Berne Union next Thursday.

Fearless Forecaster Chooses Oklahoma

NEW YORK (AP) — Now, football fans, you're going to learn how a fearless forecaster operates.

The text for the lesson is Saturday's upcoming battle between Oklahoma and Texas in Dallas. This is one of the sport's classic confrontations year in and year out.

Oklahoma won last year 27-0. Accordingly, the pick for this year... Oklahoma 27-0.

Last week's count was 44 right, 19 wrong and two ties for .698. For the season, it's 196-718—.734.

Nebraska at Missouri: These Big Eight rivals have been playing since 1892 and Nebraska's 62-0 romp last year was the series' biggest rout. Missouri wants revenge...but gets a loss instead. Nebraska 24-13.

Ohio State at Wisconsin: Two weeks ago, Wisconsin was called the best 0-3 team in the country. Now, they're the best 1-3 team. And with Ohio State and Michigan back-to-back the Badgers may soon be the best 1-5 team. The polls say Ohio State's the best team of all. Ohio State 28-14.

Alabama at Florida: Bama's scores follow an interesting pattern—66-0, 28-13, 44-0, 28-14. Ergo...Alabama 22-0.

Washington State at Southern California: Jim Sweeney says WSU has the same kind of talent as USC. Sweeney's been hearing too many leprechauns. Southern Cal 27-7.

Michigan at Michigan State: State gave Notre Dame all it could handle last weekend before bowing 14-10. They did the same to Michigan last year and lost 10-0. That takes a Spartan constitution. Michigan 20-3.

Army at Penn State: Tom Cahill is hearing the same old lines—Army football has hit a nosedive, the other team has too many guns. "People are always extending their sympathy, but I'm not interested in sympathy." Penn State 35-0.

Georgia Tech at Tennessee: Tennessee's porous pass defense and next week's match with Alabama make it close. Tennessee 20-14.

Notre Dame at Rice: Rice will have 80 Houston area priests on its bench to counter Notre Dame's built-in advantage. "Other schools have Dad's Day," says Coach Al Conover. "This is our first annual Father's Day. We've asked the priests to wear their game uniforms. We even made them pledge they'd root for Rice. We're going to outspiritualize Notre Dame." Notre Dame 21-7.

Louisiana State at Auburn: Defense is the name of this Southeastern Conference game. LSU 13-7.

Virginia Tech at Houston: Houston hasn't lost, Tech hasn't won. Houston 35-17.

UCLA at Stanford: From this one figures to come Southern Cal's chief threat in the Pacific-8 Conference. UCLA 28-21.

Boston College at Miami, Fla.: Miami upset Texas, struggled with winless Florida State, almost upset Oklahoma. B.C. is probably the East's No. 2 team and the Hurricanes appear ripe for the Upset Special of the Week...Boston College 21-16.

Air Force at Colorado: Rocky Mountain High. Colorado 24-21.

Kansas State at Kansas: KU is ready for an upset between that heart-breaking one-point loss to Tennessee and Nebraska next week. David Jaynes' passes prevail, though. Kansas 21-20.

Maryland at North Carolina State: Atlantic Coast Conference showdown pits Maryland defense against N.C. State offense. Offense prevails. North Carolina State 24-17.

Bowling Green at Kent State: Falcons are tired of finishing second in the Mid-American Conference. Bowling Green 24-14.

CHS Harriers Top Westfall

Circleville's cross country team topped Westfall, 19-36, in a dual meet Tuesday on the Tigers' course.

Matt McGowan of Circleville captured first place with a time of 10:12. Westfall's Rick Metzger was second with a time of 10:17.

Other places for the Tigers went to: Steve Watters, third; Doug Radabaugh, fourth; Robin Martin, fifth; Bill Bruno, sixth; Keith Stevenson, seventh; Kirk Knecht, eighth; John Ater, 10th; Jeff Carter, 12th; Frank Plescia, 14th; Eddie Brown, 16th; Doug Baker, 17th; Brent Patrick, 18th; Randy Swoyer, 20th; Doug Radcliff, 23rd; Scott Simpson, 25th; Dwight Plum, 26th.

Gaining places for Westfall were: Steve Johnson, ninth; Bill Ottey, 11th; Tim Adams, 13th; Anderson, 15th; Mosely, 19th; Morgan, 21st; Riddle, 22nd; Ed Grable, 24th.

Circleville will be at Teays Valley in a dual meet Thursday and at the Rio Grande Invitational 11 a.m. Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Brad Kerns of Chillicothe were Thursday evening supper guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kerns and Brian. Brad's twin sister, Mrs. David Adams and son Chad have joined Mr. Adams at Ft. Knox, Ky. where he is stationed at present.

Tuesday afternoon and evening visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kerns were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Swain, Mrs. Evelyn Swain and Mrs. Delores Shafer, all of Columbus.

The American Legion Auxiliary met Tuesday night with Mrs. Roger Karshner in charge. Departmental communications were read and chairmen of the various committees named. They are Mrs. Leona Gibson, Americanism; Mrs. Lyman Dresbach Jr., Community Service; Mrs. Lawrence Betz, Children and Youth Welfare; Mrs. Elsie Morrison, Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation.

A donation was made to Zane Trace Middle School for a flag and plans for the Legion turkey supper were made. The supper will be cooked and served by the Auxiliary. Serving will start at 5 p.m. on Nov. 1. The Auxiliary is also selling tickets on a $100 bill to be given away at Thanksgiving. Any member has tickets.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Helen Kneece and Mrs. Gladys Targee.

The Civic Club met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Howard Fish. Plans were completed for their booth at the Pumpkin Show next week. Sunday afternoon, the ladies, together with their husbands and children, painted the booth and enjoyed a wiener roast afterward. Mrs. Larry Street won the prize in a travel game and Mrs. Fred Likens showed her colored slides of her recent European trip. Mrs. Ronald Leadingham is the November hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller returned home Sunday night from a two week visit with relatives in Madison, Ill. They were guests of her father, Mr. Joseph Konieczny, and then went to Grandon, Mo. to see Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Domyan.

Mrs. Willard McCarty entertained with a 'coffee' for her new neighbor, Mrs. James Spurlock, last Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Spurlock and their three children, moved here recently from Wooster and bought the Dick Edmiston house on Warren Drive. Mr. Spurlock is associated with Rubbermaid.

A revival 'Six Glorious Days' is being conducted this week at the Kingston United Methodist Church with The Rev. Kenneth Marckel from South Salem the evangelist.

Mrs. James Seymour spent Friday with Mrs. Juanita Townsend at her home in Ringgold. On Sunday Mrs. Seymour joined Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Harper and sons, Jerry and Eric, Mrs. Will Rizer and Dave Seymour for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Seymour, Route 2, Laurelville.

Names of the cheerleaders for the Zane Trace Junior High School are Timmi Edler, Laura Opp, Pam Goldsberry, Laura Strausbaugh, Lori Serrott and Tracey Gahm. Mrs. Vivian Miller is their faculty advisor. A Junior High Pep Club will be formed again this year.

Mrs. Lucille Moore and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Leo Wiget, visited her mother, Mrs. Pearl Willis, at her home in Beaver Sunday afternoon.

Ross County Study Group Number 4 of the Farm Bureau met Monday night at the home of Mrs. George Immell. The topic for discussion was, "Issue 1" that will be on the ballot in the November election. The Legislative Agent, George Grimes, also told of the importance of issues 2-3 and 4. Number 2 has to do with income exemptions; number 3, organization of courts and number 4 issuance of bonds or notes for Veterans Bonus, to be paid out of the General Fund and not property tax.

A number of suggested topics were studied and selections for the coming year chosen.

Even A Scoundrel Can Look You In Eye

DEAR ABBY: I am a 19-year-old girl who never had a date.

Well, I met Ralph, this really nice kid at work. He's 24 and on the quiet side. He's not very sharp looking, but he has nice manners and I think he has good character because he's always talking about his involvement in church youth activities. Ralph asked me if he could meet my parents and ask their permission to date me, which I think is rather unusual for a guy these days, don't you?

I invited him over, and my mother said: "He has such nice manners, it's too bad he isn't taller."

My father said: "I never trust a guy who doesn't look you in the eye when he's talking to you, and this guy is one of them."

Abby, I like Ralph, and want to go out with him. Do you think my father could be right?

DAUGHTER VERSUS FATHER

DEAR DAUGHTER: Yes. And he could also be wrong. There are plenty of scoundrels who can look you squarely in the eye and lie like blazes if there's enough to be gained by it. Get to know Ralph better before making any judgments.

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago my sister told me her son had committed a crime and was in prison. (She gave me his address so I could write to him.) She said I am the only person she's told, and to please not mention it to the rest of the family. My sister never told me what her son did or how long he's in for, and I didn't want to question her, fearing it might upset her.

I wrote to my nephew, but didn't have the courage to ask him any questions. I did ask him what I could send him. He answered immediately, and told me not to send him anything because he couldn't accept anything. Can this be true?

Should I write to the warden and ask him what my nephew did and how long a sentence he's serving? Also, it doesn't seem reasonable that my nephew can't accept anything from the outside.

CONFIDENTIAL, PLEASE

Con Artist Bilk Women Of $4,000

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—The death of a 65-year-old Cleveland woman's husband and the resultant need for money led her to reveal she had been victimized by a confidence scheme, police report.

Police say the unidentified woman not only lost almost $4,000, including her life savings, but also wound up in debt and owing interest on a loan she was tricked into taking out.

The couple had lived on Social Security payments of $277 monthly, police said.

The situation came to a head when the husband died last Saturday and the widow, broke and needing $700 for funeral and burial services, told relatives of her problems.

Police said Monday the woman was shopping Aug. 21 when a young man offered to carry her groceries into her home and then stole a purse containing about $300.

Later a telephone caller said he was a lieutenant in the secret service and advised her to move her savings from one bank to another. He sent men to help, and they said they would deposit the $2,600.

And then the caller convinced her she could get a $1,000 premium for not having used her credit card. That so-called premium was actually a loan she obtained unknowingly from a bank by use of the credit card, and she again gave the money to the team to deposit.

She learned she was out the money when the bank insisted she had no account.

DEAR CON: If your nephew advised you that he cannot accept anything, believe him. Don't ask the warden for the particulars of your nephew's crime. If your sister didn't choose to tell you, and your nephew doesn't volunteer the information, refrain from asking. It will come out (and so will he, hopefully) eventually.

DEAR ABBY: We're trying to teach our 3-year-old daughter table manners at dinner. I say that dinner is a place to be thankful, unwind, enjoy dinner, and have a pleasant conversation. My husband says it's the place to teach our daughter good manners. I agree, but how do you discipline her and let her enjoy her meal without everyone getting upset?

We're going 'round and 'round. Please help us.

MOM

DEAR MOM: If everyone gets "upset" when you try to teach your child table manners there must be something wrong with your method of teaching. Correct her gently with patience, instead of with anger and harsh criticism. And don't pick at her for every little infraction. Let a few things go. Youngsters who are constantly upset during mealtime often develop stomach disorders later.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

OSBA Elects Officers

Officers and committeemen for the 1974 season were elected at a recent meeting of the central region of Ohio School Boards Association. Two of the members of the central region executive committee are associated with Pickaway County Schools.

Roger D. Hobbie, Route 1, Circleville and Nelson L. Stevens, Route 1, Stoutsville were two of the four members appointed to the executive committee. Hobbie is a board member at Logan Elm Schools. Stevens serves on the Pickaway County Board of Education.

A board member of the Eastland Joint Vocational School, William H. Hockman, Canal Winchester, was elected to the OSBA board of trustees. Hockman served as regional president in 1973 and also is a member of the Franklin County Board of Education.

Pickaway County is part of the 14-county region which comprises the central region. President of the central region this year is Charles W. Gooding of Delaware County Schools. Vice president is Jerome M. Stenner of Coshocton City Schools.

Answers To Questions About Social Security

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

(Q.) When I retire, will I have to pay income tax on the pension I'll receive?

(A.) It depends upon the kind of pension you will be receiving. Social Security benefits are not taxable. However, if yours is a company pension and you did not contribute to the fund, the pension benefits are fully taxable. If you did contribute to the fund and will recover your contribution within three years, the pension is not taxed until you have recovered the total of your contribution; the remainder is fully taxable. For more details, see IRS Publication 575, "Tax Information on Pensions and Annuities." Contact your Internal Revenue office for a free copy.

(Q.) I loaned my brother-in-law some money for a business venture that flopped. I know I'll never collect from him. How can I tell if the loan qualifies as a deductible bad debt expense?

(A.) When you claim a bad debt deduction you must have good evidence that the debt is worthless and will remain so in the future. You must take reasonable steps to collect the debt. It is not necessary to go to court if it can be shown that a judgment, if obtained, would be uncollectible. If, in the exercise of sound business judgment, it is determined that there is no likelihood of recovery at any time in the future, the debt has become worthless.

Secondly, gifts cannot form the basis of a bad debt. Thus, if an advance is made with the understanding that it is to be repaid and is later forgiven, the advance is considered a gift and not a

It is not necessary to go to court if it can be shown that a judgment, if obtained, would be uncollectible. If, in the exercise of sound business judgment, it is determined that there is no likelihood of recovery at any time in the future, the debt has become worthless.

Secondly, gifts cannot form the basis of a bad debt. Thus, if an advance is made with the understanding that it is to be repaid and is later forgiven, the advance is considered a gift and not a

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Taxpayers are hereby notified that the Delinquent Land List and Special Assessments of Pickaway County will be published pursuant to Section 5721.03 Revised Code on the 19th day of October, 1973, and those delinquent at the August 1973 settlement who desire to remove their names from said list should make proper payment to the County Treasurer on or before October 16, 1973.

Payments can be made with the County Treasurer in the Court House on week days, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 8:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. and from 8:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. on Friday.

Marvine H. Rhoades,
Pickaway County Auditor

DEAR CON: If your nephew advised you that he cannot accept anything, believe him. Don't ask the warden for the particulars of your nephew's crime. If your sister didn't choose to tell you, and your nephew doesn't volunteer the information, refrain from asking. It will come out (and so will he, hopefully) eventually.

DEAR ABBY: We're trying to teach our 3-year-old daughter table manners at dinner. I say that dinner is a place to be thankful, unwind, enjoy dinner, and have a pleasant conversation. My husband says it's the place to teach our daughter good manners. I agree, but how do you discipline her and let her enjoy her meal without everyone getting upset?

We're going 'round and 'round. Please help us.

MOM

DEAR MOM: If everyone gets "upset" when you try to teach your child table manners there must be something wrong with your method of teaching. Correct her gently with patience, instead of with anger and harsh criticism. And don't pick at her for every little infraction. Let a few things go. Youngsters who are constantly upset during mealtime often develop stomach disorders later.

Problems? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

OSBA Elects Officers

Officers and committeemen for the 1974 season were elected at a recent meeting of the central region of Ohio School Boards Association. Two of the members of the central region executive committee are associated with Pickaway County Schools.

Roger D. Hobbie, Route 1, Circleville and Nelson L. Stevens, Route 1, Stoutsville were two of the four members appointed to the executive committee. Hobbie is a board member at Logan Elm Schools. Stevens serves on the Pickaway County Board of Education.

A board member of the Eastland Joint Vocational School, William H. Hockman, Canal Winchester, was elected to the OSBA board of trustees. Hockman served as regional president in 1973 and also is a member of the Franklin County Board of Education.

Pickaway County is part of the 14-county region which comprises the central region. President of the central region this year is Charles W. Gooding of Delaware County Schools. Vice president is Jerome M. Stenner of Coshocton City Schools.

Egyptian Soldiers Tell Of Fight

CAIRO (AP) — Wounded Egyptian soldiers who returned from the Sinai Desert said they crossed the Suez Canal first on rubber boats to place bridgeheads for the massive crossing of Egyptian troops.

Interviewed Tuesday in a Cairo hospital, soldier Ahmed Ashur said: "We had been training on the mission for quite a long time."

"Each of us knew by heart what he was supposed to do," Ashur told a Cairo radio interviewer. "Our boats sailed along the canal under heavy artillery fire and powerful air cover.

"It took us minutes to be on the east bank ... We quickly placed the bridgeheads and raised the Egyptian flag. We then engaged the Israeli soldiers, taking them by complete surprise."

He said that according to the plan, other troops were busy building the bridges for the troops to cross the waterway from the west bank to Sinai.

He had some injuries to his hand and legs, which he described as minor.

Another soldier with facial injuries said the main job was to hoist the Egyptian flag as "an indication that the mission was accomplished."

Mosler Safe Workers Under Court Order

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Some 800 employees of two Mosler Safe Co. plants here were under a court order to return to work today.

The workers, members of Chapter 2, Safe Workers Organization, walked out Tuesday in a dispute over disciplining of an employee.

Believe Ohioan's Body Found

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Hamilton authorities were expected to arrive today in Oklahoma City, Okla., where the body of a woman, believed to be from here, was found Sunday.

Authorities said clothing on the body matched that reportedly worn by Mary Ann Mink, 19, when she disappeared from a magazine subscription sales crew Aug. 18.

The crew notified police when Miss Mink failed to report back to the crew after an evening of door-to-door sales. Cause of the death was not immediately known.

2 Marion Escapees Sought

MARION, Ohio (AP) — Lawmen in north-central Ohio searched today for two inmates who cut their way through a heavy wire fence surrounding the Marion Correctional Institution and escaped early today.

Prison officials identified the two as Mark D. Hodges, 32, of Findlay, and Dennis Burns, 24, of Canton.

Hodges was sentenced to Marion for cutting with intent to kill another girl and assault on a 13-year-old girl with intent to commit rape.

Hodges gained notoriety in 1969 when he was acquitted of first-degree murder in the slaying of Karen Kern, the niece of Ohio AFL-CIO president Frank King.

He was later acquitted on a charge of shooting with intent to kill another girl and assault on a 13-year-old girl with intent to commit rape.

Today's escape was the first at the Marion prison since July when two men led law officers on a wild chase that resulted in the traffic death of a Marion County deputy and the kidnapping of two families.

Taft With Majority On Strip Mine Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, voted with the majority Tuesday as the Senate defeated 62-29 an amendment to ease a requirement in the strip mine bill that sites be restored to their original condition.

Wisconsin Crash Kills Ohio Pilot

AURORA, Wis. (AP)—An Ohio pilot died Tuesday when his single-engine airplane crashed in dense fog near the Wisconsin-Michigan border.

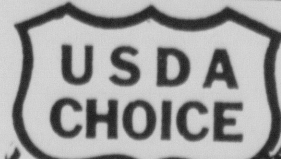

He was identified as Alexander B. Brown, 51, of North Lima, Ohio.

Authorities said the plane, evidently on a flight from North Lima, was approaching Ford Airport at nearby

Iron Mountain, Mich., when it crashed in a wooded area about two miles from the airport.

Average farm prices have declined or remained unchanged in 10 of the past 20 years.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You have many new ideas for putting in motion some plan of action that can be helpful to you. Sort over the various ways by which you can improve and increase your success by using your brainy matter sensibly. Let others see you are open to their suggestions and be cooperative.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) If you improve your health, appearance, you can get into all those interests that will make you more successful. Join social groups that help you meet worthwhile persons.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You understand what should be done now for more future success. Talk important matters over with mate in p.m. and reach a better understanding. Avoid a troublemaker.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Contact good friends early to find out whether they will help you gain your fondest aims. Get out to group meetings where persons have interests similar to yours. Steer clear of arguments.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Handle outside affairs cleverly and benefit from them. Do something patriotic that can stamp you as an A-1 citizen. Avoid one inimical to your best interests.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Find the right way to gain more respect from higher-ups and they give you needed support. Plan some important trip. Much care must be exercised in motion, driving.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Making collections and paying bills is important in a.m. Talk over your new ideas with the one you love. Strive for more harmony.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Talk over with associates that new idea that will improve mutual operations, bring greater success. Enjoy recreation with mate. Don't mind the cost.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Study new work you have assumed; be sure that it is done efficiently. Co-workers can be helpful. Coordinate efforts intelligently. Out for a spin in p.m.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Do important work early. Go out socially later and make the right new connections. Buy a gift for mate and ingratiate further into his or her good graces.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) State aims to kin and have a far better understanding. Entertain good pals and gain their goodwill. Don't invite a troublemaker into your home.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You are thinking cleverly and can now put ideas in operation for success. Get your books of record in order, handle correspondence, travel matters. Relax in p.m.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Get busy and make more money since expenses are getting higher and you may soon feel a lack. Update budget for economy. Improve order in home.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those clever young people with an agile mind and a fine physique. This child can see the promise early in any idea and wants to put it across quickly and successfully, so give as fine an education as possible. Important you teach to complete whatever has once been started, or the outstanding promise here will be lost. Business, organizational work, government alliances are especially fine here. Permit to follow own religion.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — ABC-TV tonight rolls out "Doc Elliot," a once-a-month series starring James Franciscus as a young physician who has fled the New York rat race for the rural life in Colorado.

You should watch tonight's show, if only for the scenery. It's beautiful, relaxing and may spark demands that all large cities be torn down and forests grown in their place. Let us hope this happens.

The series is set in a small town near the Rockies, although its producers say it was filmed in the community of Mount Pinos in California's rugged Los Padres National Forest near Santa Barbara.

No matter. The view is almost as good and more than makes up for the hack plot of tonight's "Doc Elliot," in which the good doctor helps a young woman blinded by cataracts since the age of six.

The woman is portrayed by Meredith Baxter. Last season, she was married to a handsome New York cab-driver-playright in "Bridget Loves Bernie."

This time, she's married to an ugly, bewildered, reclusive and dirt-poor farmer who tends to shoot at anyone who intrudes on his life.

The serious intruder starts after he fires two barrels of birdshot into the aft section of a trespassing hunter. The hunter's companions put a 22-caliber slug through the farmer's leg.

Doc Elliot, who makes his rural house calls in a radio-equipped camper truck, goes to treat him, meets his sightless wife and in due course suspects that her eye cataracts aren't permanent. He lures a friend, a big-city eye specialist, to the area on the pretext of fishing matters. It soon is decided that an operation may save her sight.

The farmer grudgingly agrees to it. But when she leaves for the operation, he gets drunk, tears up the town saloon and confesses he fears losing her if she ever sees how really homely he is.

"Ah'm a warthawg, mister," he blearily tells Doc Elliot.

And Ah think this is plumb awful dialogue and there's a lot of it in the show, even though the only country people who really talk this way are the poor script farmers who work the Hollywood Hills.

Miss Baxter, a good actress, seems to have the most trouble threading her way through the dialogue, but she performs as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Despite the script, the show has a nice feel to it, partly because of Noah Berry, who plays a justice of the peace and general store owner, and Neva Patterson, cast as the widow of a doctor whose practice has been taken over by Doc Elliot.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — ABC-TV tonight rolls out "Doc Elliot," a once-a-month series starring James Franciscus as a young physician who has fled the New York rat race for the rural life in Colorado.

You should watch tonight's show, if only for the scenery. It's beautiful, relaxing and may spark demands that all large cities be torn down and forests grown in their place. Let us hope this happens.

The series is set in a small town near the Rockies, although its producers say it was filmed in the community of Mount Pinos in California's rugged Los Padres National Forest near Santa Barbara.

No matter. The view is almost as good and more than makes up for the hack plot of tonight's "Doc Elliot," in which the good doctor helps a young woman blinded by cataracts since the age of six.

The woman is portrayed by Meredith Baxter. Last season, she was married to a handsome New York cab-driver-playright in "Bridget Loves Bernie."

This time, she's married to an ugly, bewhiskered, reclusive and dirt-poor farmer who tends to shoot at anyone who intrudes on his life.

The serious intruding starts after he fires two barrels of birdshot into the aft section of a trespassing hunter. The hunter's companions put a .22-caliber slug through the farmer's leg.

Doc Elliot, who makes his rural house calls in a radio-equipped camper truck, goes to treat him, meets his sightless wife and in due course suspects that her eye cataracts aren't permanent. He lures a friend, a big-city eye specialist, to the area on the pretext of fishing matters. It soon is decided that an operation may save her sight.

The farmer grudgingly agrees to it. But when she leaves for the operation, he gets drunk, tears up the town saloon and confesses he fears losing her if she ever sees how really homely he is.

"Ah'm a warthawg, mister," he blearily tells Doc Elliot.

And Ah think this is plumb awful dialogue and there's a lot of it in the show, even though the only country people who really talk this way are the poor script farmers who work the Hollywood Hills.

Miss Baxter, a good actress, seems to have the most trouble threading her way through the dialogue, but she performs as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

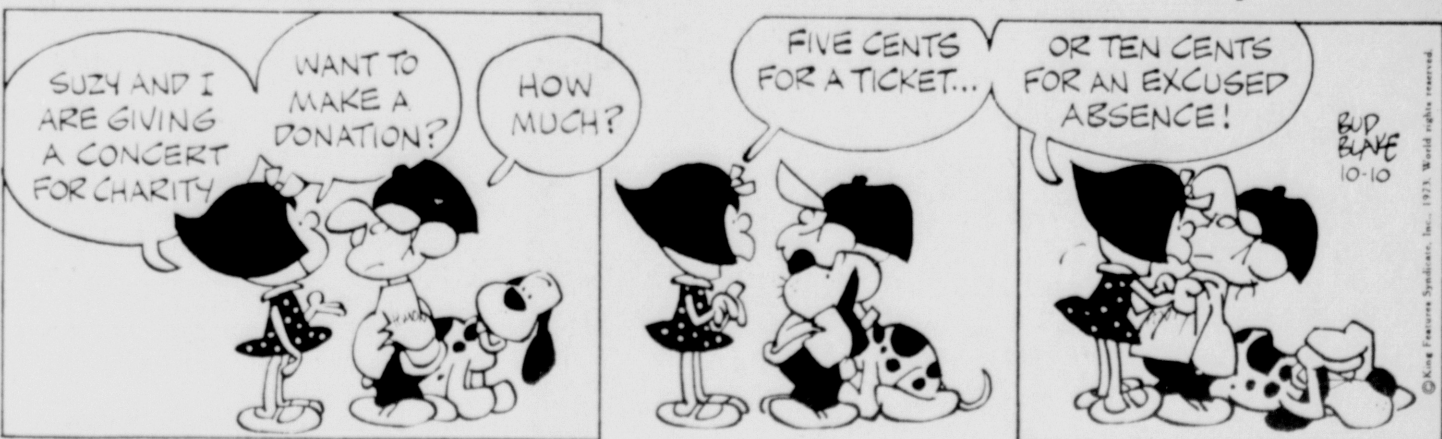

Despite the script, the show has a nice feel to it, partly because of Noah Berry, who plays a justice of the peace and general store owner, and Neva Patterson, cast as the widow of a doctor whose practice has been taken over by Doc Elliot.

A-C Board Revises Boys Hair Code

A petition requesting a dress code change was presented to the Amanda-Clearcreek Board of Education last night at their meeting. Steve Blackwell, a student at Amanda-Clearcreek, presented the petition requesting revision of the old dress code.

The board resolved to modify the code to allow for the newer men's styles. The hair style for boys is to be cut or combed so as not to fall below the eyebrows in front and is to be kept out of the face and worn cleanly and neatly at all times. The length in back shall not exceed the lower edge of a regular shirt collar. Sideburns are to be no longer than the jaw bone. Faces are to be clean shaven.

Enrollment for the district is 1560 students. The census was taken Oct. 1-5.

A resignation of Sandra Ludwick, secretary at Amanda Elementary, was accepted by the board. Louise Denney was hired to replace Ms. Ludwick. Her employment is effective as of Oct. 15. She has been a cook at the school for eleven years.

Nellie White was given a one year contract as bus driver. Substitute bus drivers employed were Evelyn Boyd and Barbara Clelland.

A request for a one month leave of absence was granted to Evelyn Kull, secretary at the Stoutsville building.

A new policy adopted by the board requires any organization holding a meeting in the school to contact each building principal at least one week in advance.

Approval was granted to Eleanor Taylor to attend the I and I Workshop. Attendance of the superintendent and board members to the OSBA Convention in Columbus, Nov. 13-15 was also approved.

In final action, the board authorized the high school girls to participate in the Mid-State Girls Athletic League.

Alan Reid, a representative of the Amanda-Clearcreek Athletic Booster Club, attended the meeting to discuss the maintenance of the football field.

A special meeting was held on Oct. 4 to discuss the immediate building needs of the school district. The board met with three architectural firms, Kellam and Foley; McDonald, Cassill and Basset; and Sounik, Eller, Martin. The board members and the school administration plan to tour buildings designed by each of these firms before deciding on which firm to engage to complete the work.

Board members in attendance at last evening's meeting were Cameron Hardie, Jean Muck, Elwood Kim, Enos Fausnaugh and Ronald Bates. Principals Richard Smith, Robert Christy, Wayne Evans, Donald Myers and Superintendent William Smith were also in attendance.

Commissioners Name Two To Retardation Board

Pickaway County Board of Commissioners Tuesday reappointed Mrs. John S. Goode, Route 1, and Mrs. Galen Mowery, Route 3, to the county Board of Mental Retardation.

Board members are appointed for 4-year terms. Pickaway County Commissioners Wayne Hines, Dick Tootle and Robert Liston were present for the weekly meeting, postponed one day because of the Columbus Day holiday.

One bid was received to replace the floor of the bridge over Scippo Creek on the Kingston-Circleville Road. The amount of the bid was $27,500.02. The engineer's estimate of cost of the project was $28,002.87. The bid was accepted.

Bids for two new cruisers for the sheriff's department were opened. The apparent low bidder was Harden Chevrolet for both cruisers. The bids accepted with trade-in allowance, were $3554.05 for one vehicle and $3504.05 for the other.

Also submitting bids on the two vehicles was Rod Bell Motors. The bids both were with trade-in allowance.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the county engineer's department to proceed by force account to replace a narrow structure on the Locust Grove-Dublin Hill Road in Perry Twp.

Commissioners approved a resolution to advertise for bids for installation of detention windows on the first and second floors of the jail. The bids are to be opened 2 p.m. Oct. 29.

Actor Reconciled Before Divorce

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — Actor Curt Jurgens and his fourth wife have reconciled on the eve of a scheduled divorce hearing, Jurgens' lawyer said Tuesday.

Divorce proceedings for the Austrian actor and French-born model Simone Boucheron had been initiated after a 15-year marriage amid press reports of a romance between Simone and an unnamed Greek movie maker.

Lawyer Erich Kaestlin did not comment on this but said the motto of the reconciliation here Monday night was that "divorce should not be the price for the bit of freedom which we wish to enjoy."

Jurgens and his wife were not available for comment.

Senate Passes Strong Strip Mine Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — A tough strip mine regulation bill has passed the Senate and now goes to the House, where environmentalists say a weaker version is being considered in committee.

The Senate approved the bill 82 to 8 Tuesday after rejecting an industry-backed move to soften its reclamation requirements.

The industry amendment, offered by Sen. James B. Allen, D-Ala., was defeated 62 to 29.

The bill, which applies only to coal mines, requires mine operators to restore the land to its approximate original contour.

Allen's amendment would have permitted other configurations "compatible with the surrounding terrain" as long as they were found to control erosion effectively.

Sen. Henry A. Jackson, D-Wash., chief sponsor of the bill, said Allen's amendment would not have required the elimination of the highwall, the vertical cut made by strip miners.

Allen said the requirements in the bill "very conceivably would make surface mining all but impossible in many parts of the nation."

He read from a letter in which he said Tennessee Valley Authority officials told him the bill could double the cost of coal production.

Jackson said it would increase costs only 60 cents a ton.

Meanwhile, the environment and mines and mining subcommittees of the House adopted a provision in the House bill that opponents said also would permit strip miners to leave highwalls behind.

Judge Admits Making Error In IBM Case

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — A federal judge has admitted he made "substantial error" in assessing damages of $352.5 million in an antitrust suit against International Business Machines Corporation by the Telex Corporation.

U.S. District Court Judge A. Sherman Christensen made the admission Tuesday in granting an IBM motion seeking amendment of the judgment or a new trial on the issue of damages.

He set Oct. 16 as the date for a hearing to determine which alternative will be taken.

"I have concluded that my computation of antitrust damages against IBM involved substantial error," the judge said.

The brief order did not specify whether Christensen believed the multimillion dollar judgment had been too high or too low, but business analysts in New York said they believed he meant they were too high.

IBM attorneys said they were "gratified" by the order.

Telex spokesmen said they had no information concerning the order and would have to wait for the Oct. 16 hearing.

Christensen's order of Tuesday does not affect his findings that IBM was in violation of the Sherman Anti-trust Act or the numerous injunctive reliefs he ordered with regard to IBM's method of doing business.

Procter & Gamble Sees Income Dip

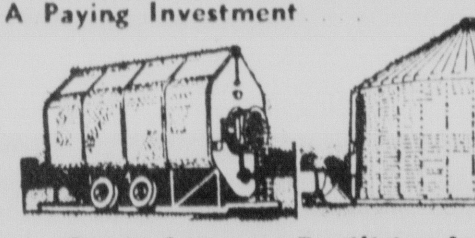

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)— Procter & Gamble stockholders can expect up to a 7 per cent drop in earnings for the June-September quarter, despite a 19 per cent increase in sales.

Chairman Howard Morgens, speaking at the firm's annual meeting here Tuesday, blamed inflation and the Cost of Living Council.

Morgens said the cost of agricultural products doubled between Jan. 1 and June 30, then doubled again over the next 45 days, but the Cost of Living Council refused to allow P&G to pass along the increases to consumers.

Vinton Teacher Strike Continues

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Agreement was announced Tuesday night ending a strike by school teachers at LaBrae in Trumbull County, but another strike that brought angry parents to the state capital Tuesday remained at an impasse.

Classes were to resume Wednesday for the 2,600 pupils in the LaBrae district where 124 teachers struck Sunday night in a pay dispute.

A spokesman said the settlement there includes a $150 annual pay raise immediately, with a promise of a wage reopener if voters approve a pending tax levy Nov. 6.

The new base pay is $6,950. Newly-negotiated fringes include a $5,000 life insurance policy and improved sick leave.

After more than four hours of picketing around the state capitol Tuesday, Vinton County parents said they won promises from the state auditor and the state industrial relations commission to investigate the fourweek-old school strike.

Parents' spokesman Keith Waters said state Auditor Joseph Ferguson promised an inspection to make certain no money is being spent illegally by school administrators.

"The investigation will center on whether out-of-state drivers have been hired to bus students while some Vinton County schools are closed," Waters said.

Waters also said Ohio Industrial Commission Chairman Gregory Stebbins promised to hold a hearing next week on the walkout by 87 teachers.

About 50 parents arrived at the capitol steps shortly before noon. They picketed there and at the state office building where the state board of education is located until about 4 p.m.

Waters said a meeting with Martin Essex, state instruction superintendent, was less fruitful.

"He said the state could not intercede until it is invited in. Unfortunately, the Vinton County School Board has refused to allow outsiders to become involved," Waters said.

The school board has invoked the state's Ferguson Act, which prohibits strikes by public employees, and has fired the striking teachers. Vinton County School Superintendent Kenneth Christopher declined to negotiate with the strikers, reasoning that they no longer are school employees.

Waters said parents also met with state Sen. Harry Armstrong, R-17 Logan. He said Armstrong agreed to try to pressure Vinton County school officials into listening to their upset voters.

Waters said most parents want the regular teachers back in the classroom.

Post Office Updates Money Order

A new money order with the limit raised from $100 to $300 per order will be available at the Circleville Ohio post office Oct. 13, according to Postmaster Charles H. Walters.

Postmaster Walters said the new system can save both the customer and U.S. Postal Service money. Buyers of the new money order will pay one fee - 40 cents - for money orders valued from $50.01 to $300. Fees for the lesser amounts will remain the same.

"Under the old system, a $300 money order involved three 40 cent fees for a total of $1.20. The new system will provide a 2-3 reduction to 40 cents," Postmaster Walters said.

The Postal Service has centralized administration of its money order system at the Postal Data Center in St. Louis. "It has the most advanced forms processing system of its type in the world and as a result of this efficiency the Postal Service expects to save about $1.6 million a year," Postmaster Walters said.

He said a new money order imprinter will replace the punch machine now in use. "The imprinter is based on the same method of printing as the credit card imprinters used in department stores, restaurants and gas station. It is designed to save time and effort at the postal window," Postmaster Walters said.

A three-part carbon interleaved money order form replaces the card form that is now used. Postmaster Walters says the larger customer receipt will be less easily misplaced, contains a complete record of when, where, and in what amount it was purchased, and will allow the Postal Service to provide faster claim service through machine processing.

The new money order form meets American Bankers Association standards for rapid handling and processing. Recipients of money orders will be able to cash them at 42,000 post offices and stations and 23,000 banks and branches.

Post Office Updates Money Order

A new money order with the limit raised from $100 to $300 per order will be available at the Circleville Ohio post office Oct. 13, according to Postmaster Charles H. Walters.

Postmaster Walters said the new system can save both the customer and U.S. Postal Service money. Buyers of the new money order will pay one fee - 40 cents - for money orders valued from $50.01 to $300. Fees for the lesser amounts will remain the same.

"Under the old system, a $300 money order involved three 40 cent fees for a total of $1.20. The new system will provide a 2-3 reduction to 40 cents," Postmaster Walters said.

The Postal Service has centralized administration of its money order system at the Postal Data Center in St. Louis. "It has the most advanced forms processing system of its type in the world and as a result of this efficiency the Postal Service expects to save about $1.6 million a year," Postmaster Walters said.

He said a new money order imprinter will replace the punch machine now in use. "The imprinter is based on the same method of printing as the credit card imprinters used in department stores, restaurants and gas station. It is designed to save time and effort at the postal window," Postmaster Walters said.

A three-part carbon interleaved money order form replaces the card form that is now used. Postmaster Walters says the larger customer receipt will be less easily misplaced, contains a complete record of when, where, and in what amount it was purchased, and will allow the Postal Service to provide faster claim service through machine processing.

The new money order form meets American Bankers Association standards for rapid handling and processing. Recipients of money orders will be able to cash them at 42,000 post offices and stations and 23,000 banks and branches.

Actor Reconciled Before Divorce

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP) — Actor Curt Jurgens and his fourth wife were reconciled on the eve of a scheduled divorce hearing, Jurgens' lawyer said Tuesday.

Divorce proceedings for the Austrian actor and French-born model Simone Boucheron had been initiated after a 15-year marriage amid press reports of a romance between Simone and an unnamed Greek movie maker.

Lawyer Erich Kaestlin did not comment on this but said the motto of the reconciliation here Monday night was that "divorce should not be the price for the bit of freedom which we wish to enjoy."

Jurgens and his wife were not available for comment.
